

Freedom's Cause

Vignette Sixteen

Titled

As One

Hello and welcome to this Presentation titled, Freedom's Cause. My name is Steven Smith and this is Part One of Vignette number Sixteen titled, As One. To begin, it is requisite you be told this is the last vignette had within this Presentation.

During the course of the previous vignettes at diverse times I have born witness of the following. As a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, in your standing as an American citizen you are charged to take the lead in defending Freedom's Cause.

For if via the malignant power of the Doctrine of Total Inclusion, freedom in America falls; you as a Devout Member have the most to lose. Correspondingly as a Devout Member, you also have the most to gain if as a Patriotic Citizen you sustain Freedom's Cause.

I believe via what you have thus far seen in these vignettes this truth has been made more than amply evident to you.

I have born witness only you, in your standing as a Devout Member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints hold the capacity to receive of that testimony the moon bears witness of when she appears in tandem with the sun. Do so by virtue of you having received the gift of the Holy Ghost.

In that at said time her testimony is not via what the eye can see or the ear can hear; the means by which slavery and segregation were overcome within America. Rather, it is via the power of the Word. For this day, it is only via the Word that the malignant powers associated with the Doctrine of Total Inclusion can be overthrown.

Born witness, the testimony of the Word is founded upon Truths Rendered Undeniable. Born witness this designates them as the teachings of Jesus Christ, as He is the great Truth that is Rendered Undeniable.

Born witness, if you will receive of the Lord's word you will gain a personal testimony of them via means of Truths Rendered Self-evident. In that if you will ponder over what has been unfolded to you within these vignettes and pray unto God, the Eternal Father, to know if the words herein are the truth. Then via the gift of the Holy Ghost you shall know they are true.

Born witness your fellow Americans hold the capacity to receive of this testimony, but not in like manner as you. For they will receive of it via the power of the Holy Ghost; the power of which is felt most directly and poignantly when one person bears witness of the truth unto another. For is it not evident unto you, it is by said means that investigators first receive of the undeniable truths our missionaries bear witness of.

Born witness I have been assigned this calling, to bear witness of these truths under the heading of the Doctrine of Freedom and therefore as a Patriotic Canadian. That this commission charges me to unfold the previous via the power of the Word; so thereby you might acquire a fuller understanding of those mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, as they pertain unto the Doctrine of Freedom.

Have born witness for you to act upon these truths, it is needful you do so as an American Citizen who worships God by adhering unto the dictates of one's conscience. Wherein, you are charged to do that which is right, for the simple reason that it is the right thing to do.

Born witness, if you will do this, the harsh issues associated with the breakup of temple marriages, the walking away of members from the Gospel, members who are trapped within addictions, shall be alleviated. Being the case as the resolution of these harsh issues is not found in a unique church, but in a broad national solution.

Born witness the authority I hold is to neither condemn nor condone any in their shortcomings, it is only to serve. To do so in strict accordance with that authority all hold who carry the commission of a child of Christ. To submit unto the dictates of one's conscience via seeking to serve others by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned, by kindness and pure knowledge.

As thereby you may converse via the tutelage of the spirit of friendship with another. Endowing you with the capacity to, over a timely period and via the appropriate means, lead others unto the truth.

Born witness you hold a second line of authority from God, being your Conscientious Line of Authority. For I bear witness, I am called to bring forth out of the shadows of the night and establish in the full light of the day, our Conscientious Line of Authority.

As via our Conscientious Line of Authority all peoples are to be upheld by ongoing revelatory insights, in their inalienable rights. That the governing principles upon which our Conscientious Line of Authority is founded, are stated within America's Declaration of Independence.

By means of these vignettes all the previous has been unfolded. In company with how via those who covet, the lie establishes secret societies. Whose avowed purpose is, garner great wealth and power by robbing people of their capacity to access their inalienable rights.

Born witness how step by step the lie has eroded the capacity of the American people to sustain the truth via adhering unto the dictates of their conscience. To thereby end the capacity of people to, via means of their Conscientious Line of Authority, receive as citizens ongoing revelatory insights. As via the power of the lie, that which is wrong is being made right; that which is right is being made wrong.

Born witness the lie has been able to do this due to so many of America's laws being legally based, but not lawfully established. As although said laws were based upon legal truths, they were not explained via the language of freedom how these truths lawfully uphold all in their inalienable rights.

Rather said laws stipulated, the courts had to sustain these legal truths as an ongoing act of faith in the general public's religious beliefs. Thus as people's religious beliefs wavered, the need for the courts to sustain said laws ended.

Born witness the duty you as an American citizen are charged to fulfill; is to uphold the American people in their inalienable right to sustain the truth, by restoring to them their capacity to do so via adhering unto the dictates of their conscience. Do so by standing forth in establishing laws that will be both legal and lawful, and thereby shall be Constitutional.

Born witness you must do so by unfolding unto your fellow Americans those undeniable truths had herein, which pertain unto the Doctrine of Total Inclusion. How said Doctrine stands in total and complete opposition to America's Declaration of Independence.

Born witness you must unfold to the America people why they must mature in their stance as citizens. By not only setting aside said doctrine, but also by learning how to see and via the bonds of friendship, turn the acceptable weaknesses within their marriages into strengths. Fulfill these two charges else see the fall of their Declaration of Independence, the fall of freedom in America.

Born witness as you fulfill these two charges, your marriage shall blossom as a rose. As you direct via the hand of friendship your fellow Americans in fulfilling these two charges, it shall be the means by which many peoples of diverse cultural backgrounds and religious beliefs shall enter into the fullness of the gospel.

As in their standing as First Nations, Buddhists, Moslems, Hindus, etc, they too will desire to partake in the fullness of joys associated with having their marriages blossom as a Rose.

Born witness, all this will transpire by and only by your adhering as a Patriot unto the dictates of your conscience. As only thereby can you see and sustain the truth of what the living embodiment of justice is.

Being those revelatory insights that unfold in an explicitly beautify manner via ongoing gentle means, how via laws of justice all are upheld in their inalienable rights. For only in said knowledge is the power of the lie to beguile ended. Thus only in said knowledge is the capacity for all to pursue after happiness assured.

Born witness both our hope and dread is found in addicts, as presently an addict is a taskmaster in training. But before a person can fulfill the duties of a taskmaster, they must first operate as a warrior who conquers. As once a person has fulfills the labor by which they conquer others; they can be established via the hand of those who lead them, as a taskmaster over those they have helped conquered.

Born witness, the secret society which has brought into being those harsh issues associated with the sexual and addiction cultures. That is responsible for those laws that make what is right wrong, what is wrong right. That if events are not altered shall bring about the fall of freedom in America, are the organized crime syndicates.

Born witness to prevent America's Declaration of Independence from falling via the auspices of addicts; you must convert addicts from the anonymous program, into Patriots who stand forth in defense of Freedom's Cause.

Born witness the best means open to you by which you can commence this process, is via those Members who are addicted.

Born witness for said members to stand forth as exemplars unto non member addicts; you must first be an example unto them of what it means to step forth out of the shadows by standing forth as a Patriot.

This then is the great and wondrous commission I have been charged via the voice of God to fulfill, by means of presenting you with this covenant. That if you will receive as a Devout Member and act upon as a Patriotic Citizen, the truths had herein; the Lord thy God shall guide thee in your standing as a Husband and as a Citizen via means of ongoing personal revelatory insights.

By said means the Lord thy God shall heal your marriages, greatly strengthen amongst all Members the bonds of devotion towards the gospel and restore unto you those who are now held beneath the power of addictions.

But if you will not receive of these truths and enter of your own volition into this covenant, you shall live to see these issues grow far worse in magnitude; while your posterity shall come to see the fall of freedom within America.

To present unto you all of the fore stated, by means of truths rendered undeniable, this is the commission I have sought to fulfill. Yet it is to be anticipated, having this knowledge suddenly dumped into your lap must come as a shock; in like manner as a non member suddenly learning of the restoration comes as somewhat of a shock. Thus I am charged to ease your anxieties by means of what follows in Part Two, of this vignette.

But before we close, a few important clarifying statements needs must be made, beginning with the environmental movement. Not so long ago Americans struggled to acquire safe working conditions, receive a fair salary, a proper work week, retirement benefits, etc. These rights were mostly achieved over a timely period via the appropriate means through trade unions.

It is also to be understood, in diverse nations Communist high jacked these trade unions and turned them into a politically militant force; that demanded change take place as soon as possible, by whatsoever means are necessary. Sadly the unwavering cruelties of diverse national governments aided communist in their capacity to curry favor amongst the general populace.

Today common sense dictates, it is requisite we take better care of the environment. But in doing so, we the people must maintain control of the environmental movement. We must not allow said movement to be high jacked by extremist; those who demand change take place as soon as possible, by whatsoever means are necessary. For via these vignettes you now know, said words are the governing mantra of all who covet.

In these vignettes you have also been shown how gender swapping is the living embodiment of the State taking on the role of a Church, a Church taking on the role of the State. Shown why open marriages, bisexual marriages and same gender marriages are the living embodiment of diverse forms of slavery.

Why those who partake in said conduct cannot help but develop a mindset that stands in opposition to America's Declaration of Independence. For rather than seeking to develop over a timely period their skill and talents. So thereby they can acquire over a timely period personal wealth and property. Their minds will lead them to understand and exploit the weaknesses of others, so thereby they can garner as much wealth as possible as quickly as possible. Do so by means of imposing the laws of slavery upon those they deem lesser than them.

Thus due to the grave concerns associated with the fore stated, it is needful you recognize none of the fore stated relationships can be authorized by means of a marriage license. Yet it is also to be recognized, you cannot create laws of the land that forbid people from entering into said sexual relationships. Rather all in their standing as citizens are to be upheld in common in security of life and property.

In regards to those relationships that cannot function via means of a marriage license, the school system will be under a legal and lawful obligation to unfold why such is the case.

To unfold why only those who enter into traditional marriages hold the innate capacity to become the living embodiment of America's Declaration of Independence and therefore is the only form of marriage that can be legally and lawfully licensed.

Unfold why couples within said marriages must not stoically endure, but must bravely face and overcome the acceptable weaknesses within their marriages. Do so in company with, why no American Citizen can look to partake in addictive products that are put forth as adult forms of entertainment.

All this being requisite, as it is to fall in line with those teachings devote parents present unto their young children. Thereby reinforcing within these children, wholesome principles upon which the dictates of their conscience are based.

In regards to said products, once their powerful malignant influence is ended, this will open the door via which much healing can transpire. As it shall endow families with a far safer environment in which marriages can be maintained and children reared.

Yet let this be understood. Democracy has not been established, nor is it maintained, save by facing and paying the high price required to overcome grave difficulties. Why then should we be surprised to discover, the gravest challenge we each face is the acceptance and resolution of our own unwholesome appetites.

Let it be understood, none is exempt from this personal undertaking; as no law of the land or of a religion can compel us to fulfill this task. Thus if we choose to not gain control of and then kill the unwholesome passions that reside within our hearts; if instead we allow them to fester and grow, we will take on that mindset that renders us an enemy unto Freedom's Cause.

But if we will undertake and fulfill this most difficult of challenges, then as our weaknesses become lasting strengths, we shall function by means of a new heart. One via which we can advance the Cause of Freedom. For, the cause of freedom is, to open unto all the means by which they can acquire happiness therein.

On said note, this is where Part One of this Vignette ends. Again, I thank you for your time. Again, I sincerely hope you have felt of the spirit. That this will lead you to ponder upon and offer up your prayers in regards to the truths had herein. For I solemnly testify, the principles unfolded herein are true and do so in the sacred name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Part Two

Hello and welcome back one last time to this presentation titled, Freedom's Cause. This is Part Two of Vignette Number Sixteen titled, As One. In the first portion of this vignette, we reviewed the diverse undeniable truths unfolded thus far within this presentation. In this, the closing remarks of this presentation, we will talk about the past, present and future.

However, in order to move forward in this vignette it is needful begin by looking at those personal laws we each must place over ourselves. For you known of your strengths and you know of your weaknesses. What you can and know you should do; what you feel strong desires to do, but know you must not do.

Stipulating, the only way you can fulfill said laws is by submitting unto the dictates of your conscience. Thus the capacity to sustain the truth by adhering unto said dictates is a labor that is neither easy to or can quickly be achieved.

For it is to be realized, the sexual and addiction cultures did not create within any of us the diverse sexual urges we may feel. What they have done is magnified the power of said urges. As this day they dominate our mindset to such a degree, they have caused us to illegally license ourselves in having the lawful right to act upon these heightened appetites. To as citizens tell ourselves, the lawful licensing of said conduct does not restrain, but rather upholds all to a greater degree in their inalienable rights.

Thus one of the main purposes of this presentation is to explain why this is not the case. For if we act upon these our heightened sexually alluring desires, then in like manner as what transpires when certain chemical elements come into contact with one another, the following must unfold in and of its own accord.

For when we choose to act upon these sexual urges and thereby alter them into heightened sexual desires; we cause moral components of justice and mercy to come into contact in diverse morally unstable formulas. In that when this transpires, we cause the moral DNA of who we are to suddenly break apart.

A highly dangerous process, as it causes a wave of corrupted sexually derived euphoric energy to sweep through our soul and thereby rearrange our moral DNA. Thus regardless of whether we want it or not, like it or not, this corrupted energy drastically alters us.

For it brings about the hardening of one's heart and thereby kills within us, our capacity to do that which is right by adhering unto the dictates of our conscience.

As via said hardening we now seek to do that which is morally wrong via adhering unto these sexual appetites.

By said means we change from spiritual creatures of justice and mercy that are drawn to the truth; to those who are drawn to the lie. From spiritual creatures of light whose moral DNA is to see another's weaknesses and then judicially help them. To spiritual creatures of darkness whose moral DNA is to now see another's weaknesses, so thereby we can judicially exploit them.

Thus from spiritual creatures of light who look to uphold for all their inalienable rights and thereby fulfill the purpose of America's Declaration of Independence.

To spiritual creatures of darkness who look to rob people of said rights and thereby destroy the capacity of any to adhere unto said Declaration.

At first this may seem to be a ludicrous concept. Thus it is requisite we compare these two opposing doctrine to two trains leaving a station at the same time, but traveling in opposite directions. At first the distance in moral behavior and principles between those in the two trains appears to be of no great significance.

But as time passes, as each train picks up speed, the distance between them must widen at an ever increasing pace. Stipulating the difference in the conduct between the peoples in the diverging trains must continue to widen. Between those who uphold said Declaration and those who stand in opposition thereto.

Thus in order to overcome the malignant impact of addictive products that are put forth as adult form of entertainment, it is needful you, as a citizen live in accordance with a personal law of prohibition. Do so by putting sustaining laws over yourself whereby you can also fulfill this governing law.

For again, if you refuse to do so, you will unleash a wave of corrupted moral energy, that must alter your moral DNA. For as said products cause addicts to abuse others, they alter the moral DNA of all who sustain their being licensed.

From spiritual creatures of justice and mercy that are drawn to the truth, to those that are drawn to the lie. From spiritual creatures of light whose moral DNA is to see another's weaknesses and then judicially help them. To spiritual creatures of darkness whose moral DNA is to see another's weaknesses, so thereby we can judicially exploit them.

Thus although it is necessary national laws be put in place that forbid the manufacturing, transportation or sales of all products that advance these corrupt doctrines. Save you place these personal and corresponding sustaining laws over yourself, the laws of the land can have no lasting effect.

Thus the only real purpose the laws of the land can fulfill; is to restrain the corrupt pedlars of said products, from seeking to undermine your fixed determination to not partake thereof. As void of this fixed determination, these laws of the land can achieve no lasting good.

It is also for you to realize, the personal laws of chastity and of prohibition you place over yourself, are interdependent. If you refuse to sustain one, you must eventually lose the capacity to sustain the other and thereby freedom in America must fall.

All of which will transpire do to this simple truth. Each generation that has lived and every generation that is to come is dependent upon the generation that this day, is learning how to adhere unto the dictates of one's conscience.

For it is only via those who have lived, that you in your standing as an American Citizen have acquired the maturity you presently hold to so adhere. Thus you are under an obligation to your progenitors for all they achieved on our behalf via their having done so.

An obligation that transcends the date your family's lineage as American Citizens began. For the capacity you hold to move forward as an American Citizen, began with those who step by step moved your family forward in being able to sustain those principles upon which America was founded.

To do so by their step by step receiving of said truths and learning how to sustain them for one simple reason. The dictates of their conscience told them, it was the right thing to do. This then is an obligation you can only fulfill by living up to this responsibility. Being you must maintain what they achieved, by passing their achievements on to the next generation. For their achievements are, this day all are upheld in their inalienable right to Life and Liberty.

Do so by facing and overcoming the harsh issues of your day, so thereby all might be upheld in their inalienable right to Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. For if you fail to do so, you disavow the obligation you are under to your progenitors and if you carry out this heinous act, you disavow Freedom's Cause.

This then is the great and sacred obligation to our progenitors the dictates of our conscience place each of us under. In this I do not seek to diminish in anyway the grave and various challenges this puts us all under. Especially the sacrifices call for by those who hold diverse sexual appetites, when said appetites are a deeply ingrained part of who they are, as the hard challenge associated therewith is not to be trivialized.

But if any in their standing as a citizen refuses to live up to said challenge, then it is they who trivialize the challenges met and overcome by others. Of those who sacrificed unto the laying down of their lives, so this day America might have a Declaration of Independence. That sacrificed unto the laying down of their lives, so thereby slavery and segregation might be overcome.

For it is to be recognized, all such did so via adhering unto the dictates of their conscience. Thus this day, in our being called upon to perform the hard labor of our day, we too must be willing to sacrifice.

Once again do so by submitting unto the dictates of our conscience. As only thereby can we pass on untarnished into the hands of our posterity; the principles of freedom the progenitors of our freedom died to bring into being.

Do so by this day overcoming the malignant power of the Doctrine of Total Inclusion by submitting unto the dictates of our conscience. Duties you can only fulfill via taking upon yourself and learning how to live in accordance with, no matter the difficulty associated therewith, an intimate and personal law of chastity, an intimate and personal law of prohibition.

For it is to be recognized, only via submitting unto the dictates of their conscience could America's Founding Fathers entered into the covenant of freedom that this day exists between your Creator and you the American people. A covenant established by means of your Declaration of Independence.

A covenant your forefathers ratify via overthrowing the Doctrine of Slavery within America. As only thereby could they open the means by which all are upheld in their inalienable right to Life.

A covenant they then had to ratify yet again via their ending the power of the Doctrine of Segregation, as only thereby could they open the means by which all are this day upheld in their inalienable right to Life and

A covenant you, in your standing as a citizen are called upon to ratify for a third time by means of upholding all in their inalienable right to Life, Liberty and to pursue after Happiness. Do so by overcoming the power of the Doctrine of Total Inclusion.

I know there are many members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints who reject the principle of my holding authority to present you with this covenant. I remind you, I am not offering you said covenant. I am clarifying and calling upon you to ratify for a third time, the covenant that has existed between you the American People and your Creator since July 4th, 1776.

That you might more fully comprehend how said covenant works and that it applies unto all nations, it is needful the following is unfolded. When the British people ended slavery by adhering unto the dictates of their conscience, their minds were opened unto those truths via which the Industrial Age came into the world.

For this prerequisite was in place. To acquire said knowledge it was necessary men develop the maturity requisite for setting Ancient Slavery aside. The capacity to do so via adhering unto the dictates of one's conscience. Else said knowledge would have been put to corrupt purposes, the strengthening of those corrupt laws that applied to ancient slavery.

For such was the case in regards to slavery in the southern United States. For throughout America slavery had become a dying institution. But once the cotton genie was invented, the capacity to make vast amounts of wealth of the labors of slaves became evident. Causing slavery to thrive throughout said region as it never had till then.

When Segregation was ended in America, the means was opened to you as a citizenry to partake in today's diverse forms of mass communication. For until you held the maturity to enter into open and honest communication with all void of racial discrimination, etc; your very mindset prevented you from receiving said knowledge. For again said knowledge would have been put to corrupt purposes, the strengthening of those corrupt laws that applied to segregation.

As the Industrial Age came via you upholding all in their inalienable right to Life, as the Age of Mass Communication came via you upholding all in their inalienable right to Liberty. That as both were achieved by people maturing in the capacity to adhere unto the dictates of their conscience; this opens to you the following query. What blessing awaits you if you uphold all in their inalienable right to pursue after Happiness?

It is, if you, the American people, move forward in fulfilling that covenant you entered into with your Creator on July 4th, 1776. Do so by learning how to uphold all in their inalienable right to Life, Liberty and also the pursuit of Happiness. Do so via adhering unto the dictates of your conscience.

Firstly and as noted, this will cause you to turn the acceptable weaknesses within your marriage, into lasting strengths. Thereby, allowing your marriages to blossom as a Rose.

The ramifications of said blossoming being, as spouses you will be endowed with the desire to spend as much time as possible together, in company with family members and friends. A desire that will be fulfilled as you will be inspired in your capacity to develop and mass produce greater technological advances.

For I bear witness, as your capacity as a citizen to adhere unto the dictates of your conscience increases; in like manner as those who upheld all in their inalienable right to Life, brought into being the industrial age. In like manner as those who upheld all in their inalienable right to Liberty, brought into being the age of mass communication. You too shall bring a new and greater age into the world, via which all who will, can prosper therein, being the age of The Family.

At this time I would have you recall, at the commencement of Vignette number One; I made certain promises in regards to truths that would be unfolded to you, that would be new to your understandings.

Least you as yet do not understand; in and of myself I was not making these promises. It was making them on behalf of the Lord, for it is not me but the Lord who has unfolded these truths to you.

For the Lord has, via the power of His word, unfolded via Truths Rendered Undeniable the means by which you can resolve those harsh issues associated with the sexual and addiction cultures.

Thus if in your standing as a child, you turn your heart to your fathers and thereby fulfill the obligation you are under to them. If in your standing as a father you turn your heart to your children and thereby fulfill the responsibility you are under to them.

If as child and father, you fulfill - as one - these duties, the fore stated blessings shall of their own accord flow unto you as stipulated in the Doctrine and Covenants 121:46.

Quote. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter and unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever. End Quote.

Well that about raps up this Vignette and therefore this Presentation. Again I know what has been placed before you via these vignettes are principles that are difficult to accept at face value. To hear of a line of authority you were unaware of; a Covenant you were unaware of.

It is unreasonable to expect any reasonable person to merely accept such at face value. But then, it is not required of you, in your standings as a Devout Member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, to do so.

For the power to receive of and adhere unto the Word, be it under the heading of The Doctrine of Freedom or of Happiness, is as it has always been. To ponder over and then ask of God, the eternal Father, in the name of Jesus Christ, if that which you have heard is indeed the truth.

For I bear witness, if you fulfill this principle, you will receive via the spirit this testimony. That the undeniable truths stated throughout this presentation, are true. Of this I most solemnly bear witness of and do so in the sacred name of Jesus Christ. Amen.
