

Wayne Central School District

CHARACTER

NHS members are role models of good character by maintaining academic integrity and honesty. They effectively advocate for themselves and others. NHS members are active in school clubs and functions and promote kindness and compassionate connections within our community.