

- What information do you collect?

This application collects your Heroku app names and the edited name you want it associated with.

- How do you use the information?

Your Heroku app names and your customized edited names will be stored in your browser's local storage. This is similar to a cookie.

- What information do you share?

We share none of your information. It's not even accessible to us.