Eagle Stadium Parking, Entrances & Arrival Instructions

Varsity Home Parking

The primary parking area for home fans is the area behind the home bleachers, accessible from Eagle Crossing/Oak Street or through two entrances from City Park. Fans parking in this area will enter the stadium near the concession stand. The gravel parking area behind the concession stand is reserved for handicap parking and senior citizens.

The South Parking Lot between Fairfield High School and Fairfield Junior High will serve as overflow parking for home fans. Fans parking in the South Parking Lot may enter the stadium on the south side.

Varsity Visitor Parking

Visitor parking is located in the South Parking Lot between Fairfield High School and Fairfield Junior High. Visiting team buses should park between Fairfield High School and Eagle Stadium, as shown on the map.

Golf Cart Service

During varsity football games, golf cart shuttle service will be available to assist guests with transportation from designated parking areas to the stadium entrance.

Junior High & JV Football Parking

Only one stadium gate will be open for junior high and JV football games.

Parking for both home and visiting fans is located behind the home bleachers. This area can be accessed from Eagle Crossing/Oak Street or through two entrances on the north end of the parking area from City Park.

All junior high and JV fans will enter the stadium near the concession stand.

Junior High & JV Handicap & Senior Citizen Parking

The gravel parking area behind the football field concession stand is reserved for handicap parking and senior citizens.

Visiting Team Buses – All Football Games

Visiting team buses should park between Fairfield High School and Eagle Stadium, as shown on the map.

Visiting Teams, Bands & Spirit Groups

- Visiting teams, bands, cheerleaders, drill teams, and other participating groups should follow the designated parking, unloading, and entrance instructions provided on the map above.
- Band members, drill team members, cheerleaders, and pep squads must be accompanied by a sponsor.
- Only authorized personnel are permitted in restricted fieldhouse and playing field areas.

Visiting Press Box & Filming

- Visiting radio crews will be located in the visiting press box.
- The visiting team will use the visitor's press box.
- Both teams will film from the top of the visiting press box.

Playing Field

- Only emergency vehicles may be parked inside the stadium. Vehicles used to load or unload equipment, such as Gators or utility vehicles, may enter the stadium as needed.
- Equipment on wheels may not be moved across the playing field. Please move equipment around the outside boundaries of the field.
- Live animal mascots are prohibited.
- Props that could mark, damage, or cut the field surface are prohibited.
- On-field victory lines are limited to drill teams, cheerleaders, and other participants approved by game administrators.
- Only authorized personnel are permitted on the sidelines and playing field.
- Spectators are not permitted on the field before or after the game.

Dressing Rooms

- Only authorized personnel are permitted in the fieldhouse area before the game, at halftime, and after the game.
- Fairfield ISD does not provide towels.
- Fairfield ISD is not responsible for articles left in dressing rooms before, during, or after games.

Bleachers & Spectator Areas

- Loitering is not permitted. Spectators must sit in the stands and stay off the rails.
- Aisles must remain clear at all times.
- Students may not cross to the opposite side of the stadium.
- Signs and banners must promote the school, team, or program. Negative signs directed toward the opposing team are prohibited.
