

[Spellcasting Focus (Any Arcane or Wodewose Focus, or Any Holy Symbol)] of Tiring Cast
(Rare, Attunement)

As an Action, you can replenish Spell Slots of a total level up to 5, and gain as many Exhaustion Levels as the total level of Spell Slots replenished.

Mask of the Ever-Awoken (Uncommon, Attunement)

You ignore the effects of Exhaustion while wearing this mask on your face. You still gain Exhaustion levels as usual. You cannot be magically compelled to sleep.

Cursed: This curse only activates if you gain a level of Exhaustion while wearing this mask. You are unwilling to remove this mask. Each Long Rest you complete while under this curse, you must make a DC 25 CON Save, or else not lose any levels of Exhaustion from the Long Rest.
