RULES.

I'VE NEVER FELT SO ... LIGHT.

01. this is a private and selective blog who will not follow everyone back, including fandoms that i am uncertain of or characters i cant see my muse interacting with. that being said, i will write with different fandoms, it just may require some plotting before doing so. original characters, multimusers etc are welcome here.
02. ACTIVITY ON HERE will be low and replies will be slow. This is mainly because the only time i am available to get on will be at night times due to my job and activity on the weekends will be sparse.
03. this blog will be heavily headcanon influenced which will be created by yours truly. everything will be book based over movie/tv show. i have been roleplaying JONATHAN/SEBASTIAN for around 10 years now and he's basically like my baby.
04. shipping is a very big thing for me, i will ship with anyone as long as i can see something between our characters. HOWEVER, with that being said, relationships isn't something that comes easy for my character. It won't happen without any sort of plotting.
05. there are no triggers that i require my partners to use. As i am over the legal age, there will be content on here with adult themes such as nudity, nsfw, drugs, blood etc but all will be tagged accordingly. just let me know if you need me to tag future threads/posts.

06. i dont usually like to talk about this but i am severally blind to the point where i am registered as blind so if you heavily format your replies, i may have to change the formatting on my reply to you so it makes it more accessible. but please don't feel the need to change it on your blog!! just to help my little eyes from not straining.

07. last but not least, anyone is welcome in im's. whether its to plot, whether its to chat about everything and anything, i'm always here so please pop in!! i do also have discord which I'm more than happy to share with people. just ask!

08. DISCLAIMER !!! psd's used on any edits, icons etc is a custom made by venuscommissions and dash icon, promo and header was made by emmacommissions. all headcanons, edits, headers etc have been made by yours truly unless stated otherwise.

BIOGRAPHY.

I AM [...] COMING.

The boy of shadowhunter blood has a name and that name is Jonathan Christopher Morgenstern. He was born from the blood of the deceased, psychopathic man who is known by the name of Valentine Morgenstern and the woman who had lost her love for the boy, Jocelyn Fairchild. He is the only brother of the heavenly, Clarissa Morgenstern (Fairchild), who is known for her efforts in stopping the demonic war and betraying her own flesh and blood. Now, Jonathan doesn't always go by the name of the first shadowhunter, but also chooses to pose as Sebastian Verlac, the identity he had stolen from the real but missing Sebastian, whom not a single soul knew the whereabouts of. No one but the boy of shadowhunter blood.

Troubled as he may be, he had always been the terror fiend he is today even from his birth. All because of the experiments conducted on him before his eventual birth. The experiment concluded of the poor baby boy being dosed with a demon's blood, but not just any demons blood, only the mother of all demons, Lilith. Because of this, Jonathan was never far away from the watchful eye of the greater demon as she watched him constantly and aided Valentine with all he needed. She had become an adoptive mother to him with her viewing Jonathan as the only one worthy of being her son, as demons were the offspring of the curse ridding her of the ability to have children of her own.

Now, having two mothers should have been more than a pleasure for the small shadowhunter boy, but the biological mother of the boy could not bring herself to love him for she could see the pure evil in his eyes. She could not tend to him as a mother would do to her newborn baby due to the hatred of her own son in her heart and oh how she cried in despair at her cruelty to her baby boy who knew nothing better.

Influenced by his father, he found himself believing that his mother had abandoned him, his father making him think that it was his fault for pushing his own mother away. It meant that Jonathan was now alone with only his father there to watch him grow up, teaching him the values in which Valentine believed to be true. Through that, Jonathan slowly became a cold, bloodthirsty psychopath as he got older, becoming abnormally faster and stronger than most shadowhunters [especially Jace Lightwood as Jonathan likes to keep commenting.]. He was adept at charm and charisma, putting on a face to others, to get what he wanted when in reality, he was vindictive, arrogant and cruel to all.

VERSE01. PAINT IN BLOOD: this is jonathans's main verse and this is what i will automatically put everyone's threads under unless you ask otherwise. it is set mid-city of heavenly fire and his main goal is to have his sister and for both of them to rule edom. more information to come later

VERSE02. ENGULFED BY HEAVENLY FIRE: this is the verse that takes place after city of heavenly fire and instead of sebastian dying, he survives the heavenly fire but has all the evilness that possessed him ripped away and he becomes the true jonathan with green eyes. however, unfortunately, he finds it hard to tell the difference between sebastian and jonathan due to the heavy weight of guilt he has inside of him from all the blood on his hands. more information to come later.

VERSE03. THAT WORLD INVERTED: what if jonathan had never been born with demon blood inside of him? what if valentine had never experimented and was considered a war-hero and jonathan was born to a happy couple? In this verse, Jonathan is a talented shadowhunter and is quite possibly in the run for being one of the best youngest shadowhunter along with jace wayland. he is parabatai with his dear sister, Clary Morgenstern. more information to come later
