CLS goes to the movies: Wildcat

Do you love the works of Flannery O'Connor? Have you been intrigued by the trailer for Wildcat? Well, AFS Cinema has three showings set for June 1 (3:45p and 6:15p) and June 2 (4:30p). If you are interested in meeting up with CLS colleagues for a viewing experience (and perhaps food afterward), please add your name, email, and day/time preferences below.

Disclaimer: the organization of this event will be very informal. I'll send out an email, and encourage people to communicate with colleagues who have the same day/time preferences.
