

Confirmed dates/presentations – AAU Friday Seminars

Please contact Dr. Ann O'Connell (ann.oconnell@gse.rutgers.edu) for more info.

Feb 28 7am - Ann O'Connell (Rutgers University): "Building evidence for high-quality education practice"

March 7 - Rob Zisk (Rutgers University): "Investigative Science Learning Environment: Learning Science or Doing Science: Empowering Students to Develop Scientific Knowledge in Epistemologically Authentic Ways"

March 28 – Dan Battey (Rutgers University) – "Mathematics problem solving and student strategies in elementary operations"

April 4 - Gregory Hancock (University of Maryland): "Power Analysis Has Lost Its Way: New Methods to Bring it Back Home"

April 11 – Ben Kelcey (University of Cincinnati): Topic TBD

April 18 – Kieran Nduagbo (Adams State University) and Carolyn Casale (Henry Ford College): "Supporting pre-service teachers' clinical experiences"

April 25 – Marybeth Gasman (Rutgers University) – "Historical research methods: Creative approaches"

May 2 – Marsha Lewis (Ohio University) – "A Public Value Model for Educational Leadership"

May 9 – Janice Gobert (Rutgers University) – "Inq-ITS: Real AI in Real Time to support teachers and students in science competencies"

May 16 – Mary Curran (Rutgers University) – "Community-Engaged Language Education"