

Hey Andry! I Liked Your YouTube video of the Planche tutorial in 2023 because it was engaging and informative! I wanted to give you something to help sell your training program in exchange for a free testimonial. (Only if you get noticeable results and are happy with them!) I put together what you offer in your program in a bulleted list. A bulleted list may help people better understand what you have to offer and it may appeal to them while answering some of their questions right off the bat. Here's the bulleted list with a little revision: - Learn Fast - 9 Level Training System - Progress tracker - Community of like minded individuals - Video Guided Workouts - Access to me (One more thing i would add to the website is the cost of the program, but if it works better without the price visible that's okay too. Hope this works well for you and i hope to hear back from you soon, Daniel
