System followed

Democracy

Government in which all eligible citizens participate on an equal basis - either directly or through their elected representatives - in proposing, developing, and creating laws.

It includes the social, economic and cultural conditions that enable citizens to exercise free and equal political self-determination.

One of the most important foundations of democracy is commitment to responsibility, respect for order, and the preference of knowledge over force and violence. As mentioned earlier, democracy originally means the rule of the people for themselves, Be wise and build the meaning of a constructive society.

Together, yes we can

Civilisation

What sets us apart ?

Civilization Characteristics

Each nation has its own civilization, which expresses its identity and culture, and each civilization has something that distinguishes it from others, with the convergence of all civilizations in elements; Such as development, advancement, modernity, scientific and intellectual progress, and our nation has its own civilization, which is unique to it from other civilizations, by combining the values of spirit and matter, and harmonizing them between material needs and practical needs without separating them, and there are great characteristics in this direction of our civilization

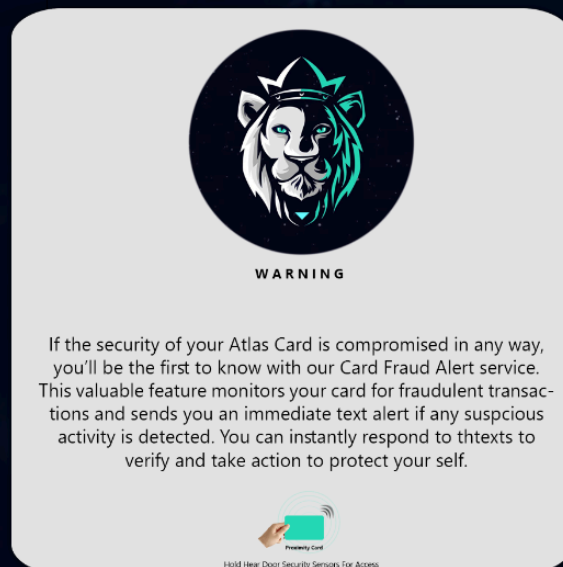

- Several features distinguish our civilization, including the interest in science and knowledge.
- Giving and development is a civilization that calls for production, work and sacrifice, and it follows the paths of continuous development.
