A local lord by the name of Istvan came to see me in Vampire Legends 2: The Untold Story of Elizabeth Bathory Collector's Edition PC Game. His daughter, Lady Agnes, is missing. She went to play and sing for the Countess Elizabeth Bathory, and she hasn't been seen since. It's been three months, Lord Istvan only received one letter from his daughter. She says that she became the Countess' favorite and that she was asked to stay a little longer. There have been rumors going around that many young women have disappeared without a trace after visiting the Countess. The King is too busy to deal with this in a time of war, so it's up to me to do something. After all, I am a Finder. Lady Agnes' locket is the only lead I have so far. The lock of her hair should help me find her.
