

Section Email Template - Recruitment Specialist Introduction

Subject Line: Introducing Our PGA Career Services Recruiting Specialist

Copy:

(insert name)

As a member of the (insert Section), it's (insert personal thoughts or anecdotes related to growing the sport and how your section specifically can help).

To that end, I/we wanted to make you aware of our PGA Career Services Recruiting Specialist, (insert name). She/he is one of five individuals who make up the Recruiting team, an amazing group that specialize in providing information on the golf industry to prospective employees as well as helping to connect them with the necessary tools and resources to help grow their careers in the sport. I've/We've included (insert name's) bio and contact information below and you can reach out to her/his directly at any time for more information.

As a next step, if there's anyone who you know who would be a great fit for our profession, I/we would like to encourage you to personally extend the invitation and help us make those connections to the PGA Recruitment Team. To assist you in this process, I've/We've included an email template so that you can easily help connect the next generation of PGA Professionals and golf industry workers with them directly.

Thanks for everything that you do for the (insert Section) and we appreciate your support on this important growth initiative.

Sincerely,

(Signature)