

Want to record an introduction for The Homeschool Well? Here's how!

Where to Record

Find a quiet room. The less echo the better. A bedroom or closet is fine. Be sure to smile while speaking. It makes a big difference in tone of voice.

Script

Please use the following script format:

Hey! I'm <<First Name>> from State or Region>> and I'm a <<Homeschool Status>>.

I love listening to The Homeschool Well podcast because... <>.

Enjoy today's episode!

[Include 20 seconds of silence at the very end. This helps us remove noises from the background]

The best intros are between 30 – 60 seconds.

Feel free to personalize your recording as much as you like. Don't worry about making the recording perfect either... We have an amazing editing team who can work magic.
