

Privacy Policy

This page informs you about our policies regarding the collection, use, and disclosure of personal data when you use the application (our Service) and the choices you have associated with that data.

By using the application, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this policy.

1. Application Database

The information entered in zapGO is used for the proper functioning of the features within the app. They may be stored in a local database on the device itself, and these data are deleted after uninstallation.

2. What the app does with your personal information

The application does not request or transmit your personal information. Third-party services such as Google AdMob may collect information used to identify you. More information about the privacy policy of the service providers we use can be found in section 3.

3. Service Providers

The zapGO app uses Google Play Services. To read their privacy policy, please visit the link <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>

3.1 Analytics

The zapGO app uses analytics services to collect information about app usage, such as the screens most accessed by users. The main purpose of the collected data is to improve usability and develop increasingly accurate functionalities.

3.1.1 Google Analytics

Google Analytics is an analysis service offered by Google that tracks and reports app and website traffic. Google uses the collected data to track and monitor the use of our service. This data is shared with other Google services. Google may use the collected data to contextualize and personalize advertisements in its advertising network. For more information about Google's privacy practices, please visit the Google Privacy & Terms page: <https://policies.google.com/privacy>

3.1.2 Firebase

Firebase is an analytics service provided by Google Inc. Its privacy policy can be found at the link <https://firebase.google.com/policies/analytics>

You can disable certain Firebase features through your mobile device settings, such as your device's advertising settings or by following the instructions provided by Google in their Privacy Policy: <http://www.google.com/intl/en/policies/privacy/>

We also recommend that you review Google's policy to protect your data:

<https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/6004245>. For more information about the type of information Firebase collects, please visit the Google Privacy and Terms page: <http://www.google.com/intl/en/policies/privacy/>

3.2 Advertisements

We may use Google service providers to display advertisements in order to maintain the service offered by the app.

4. Validity

We emphasize that our applications are made available for download exclusively through the Play Store (Google's official app store), so the terms and information described here are valid only for our applications downloaded and installed through the aforementioned stores. We cannot guarantee the origin of any application that may be made available and/or installed in any other way.

5. Privacy Inquiries

If you have any questions or concerns regarding the Privacy Policy of our applications or any practices described here, you can contact us at lmsoftsup@gmail.com, and we will be pleased to assist you.

We reserve the right to update our privacy policy whenever we deem it necessary. In the event of any changes to this privacy policy, we will notify you of the update through the official app page on Google Play, within the app itself, or through other types of notifications that we find appropriate. This way, you will always stay informed.

6. Agreement

By continuing to use our applications, you indicate that you agree to the stated terms and to be bound by any changes made to the terms of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to any of the terms, you should refrain from using our applications.
