Characters:

Bob - 30's. a blue collar, middle class, die hard Chicago cubs fan. Born and bred in Chicago with a thick Chicago accent. He loves all things grill related and fancies himself the Grill Master King.

Ted - 30's. A friendly, light hearted and inquisitive construction worker who's a little rough around the edges. He was his high school's weed dealer. He only drinks Old Style beer.

INTRO PLAYS

EXT. BACKYARD - DAY

BOB AND TED ARE SITTING IN A LAWN CHAIR. BOB IS GRILLING AND TED IS DRINKING AN OLD STYLE BY THE COOLER.

BOB

Hi, I'm Bob Turner, the Grill Master King.

TED

And I'm Ted, Bob's neighbor.

BOB

This is the show where Ted and I give the youths of America timeless advice from a coupla guys who've been there and done that. Such as, if it's your first beer of the day, it doesn't count.

TED

Hell yeah. This is my third-first beer of the day.

BOB

Ted's a little rough around the edges.
Which brings us to this week's topic:
Drugs.

TED

Our first question comes from Thomas in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Thomas writes, "Hey Bob and Ted," Right on, hey. "I'm a college freshman at LeHigh University and tonight I'm going to try drugs for the first time. What do you think?" Gnarly. Cool. Go for it.

BOB

No, Ted, he's a kid and drugs are bad. Remember?

TED

Oh sure, I've taken enough drugs to know they're bad. I've also taken enough to know they're pretty good, too.

INTERN HANDS MESSAGE

Oh, we got another question, this one comes from... Thomas in Bethlehem, again. And he writes, "I took the drugs." Right on. Go for it.

BOB

Jesus, don't go for it. What drugs did you take?

TED

Yeah, what drugs? Poppers, pills, puffers? Did you shoot it or toot it? (handed a page by intern) Another message from Thomas. And he writes, "Bad idea. BAD IDEA! Oh, God. Ohhh, God. OH, GOD!!!" Yea. Go for it.

BOB

Ah, jeez, he's tripping like a baby deer
on American Ninja Warrior.

TED

Eh. This sounds more like the pre-flight check before blast off. (Intern hand message) Thomas again, "Am I going to die?"

BOB

No.

TED

Maybe.

TED

(Intern hands paper)

And, it's Thomas. "Hey Bob and Ted, I can't reply right now because I'm turning into a thousand year old willow tree having a prostate orgasm." Okay, now he's tripping.

LONG BEAT

BOB

What the hell is a prostate orgasm?
