Personality.

Main traits: Passion, integrity, wit, humour, passion for work and making documents.

Zack is a strong-willed and passionate worker. He is extroverted, and naturally full of charisma. His biggest strength is his ability to adapt on the spot, despite what he is doing or being dragged off to.

He holds himself to a high regard and tries his best to be true to himself and to others around him, he doesn't hide his feelings and states his opinion of others rather bluntly. Despite his bluntness, he is respectful towards his colleagues without (much) fail. His greatest gift is his integrity, despite being prone to chaos, he tries her hardest to uphold order and balance where he can.

Of course, with positives comes negatives. There are many times where he has no clue what she is talking about, and can be easily distracted, often drifting from one task to another despite her dedication to get tasks done and unknowing of what to do at times. Because of his distractibility, it is easy to say that when he has quite a few, a few are forgotten.

He is prone to being optimistic and that can often be his downfall. He wants to make good in the world and that can often lead to his making impulsive decisions about who to trust, despite their personal track records. Sometimes, this optimism can lead to his taking light of serious situations. For example, laughing while getting kidnapped or mauled by S.C.P. personnel.

Personality type advantages:

- Empathetic, self-sacrificing, curious, perceptive, enthusiastic.

Personality type disadvantages:

- Unfocused and disorganised, restless, can be manipulative and ego-centric.

Summary: Zack is an optimistic, hard worker and is full of charisma. However, Zack is easily distracted and sometimes over-optimistic and at times has no clue what to do for the first time.
