

COVID-19 Survey for NAASS 2020 Conference Summary of Survey Results

Survey closed 6/1/20
135 responses

1) At the current time, if NAASS hosts an in-person conference in Philadelphia on November 8-11, 2020, would you be able or willing to attend to attend the NAASS Annual Conference?

135 responses

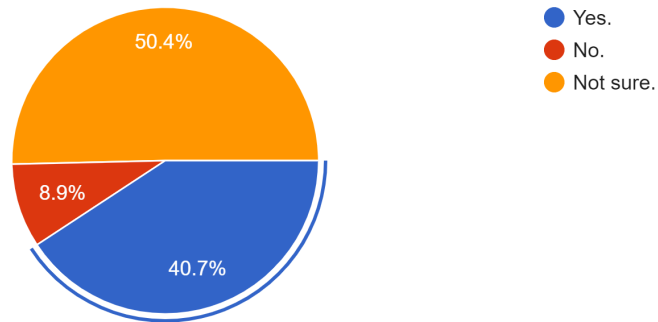

1a) If you are anticipating that you may not be able to attend the in-person conference in November, please select the reasons from the list below. [choose all that apply]

123 responses

- 71% (87) – Financial constraints at my institution
 - 63% (78) – Will not get travel approval
 - 46% (57) – Personal comfort
 - 44% (54) – Will not have professional development funds
 - 14% (17) – Health issues
-

2) If, instead of an in-person event, NAASS hosts a virtual event in November or series of packaged virtual events in the coming year, would you attend? ... be a registration fee required for participation.

135 responses

2a) If you are not interested/able or not sure about attending a virtual NAASS event in the fall, please select the top reason from the list below. [choose all that apply]

80 responses

- 55% (44) -- Financial constraints at my institution
- 53% (42) -- Need more information about the program
- 44% (35) -- Will not have professional development funds
- 20% (16) -- Not interested in attending a virtual event