

Digging Deeper in Chapter 62/ELI: Support for District and Building Leadership

This professional learning opportunity is focused on early elementary reading as it pertains to Chapter 62 requirements. The targeted audience includes school administrators, curriculum coordinators, coaches, and student services coordinators. These sessions will include presentation of most recent information, review of new guidance documents, and discussion of current questions and sharing processes being used by participants to meet Chapter 62 requirements. Areas of coverage include:

- What does “at risk of substantial deficiency” mean and what is required
- What does “substantially deficient” mean and what is required
- Discussion of the relationship between substantially deficient and suspicion of a disability
- Parent notification
- Progress monitoring and monitoring requirements
- Data Based decisions based on monitoring data
- Considerations around implementation fidelity

These meetings are sponsored by Heartland AEA and will be facilitated by Randy Allison and Martha Condon.
