

PRIVACY POLICY

Last Updated: December 19, 2025

Conosi LLC, a California limited liability company, (“Conosi”, “our”, “we”, or “us”), has created this privacy policy (the “Privacy Policy”) to explain our privacy practices. This Privacy Policy discloses our information-gathering and -dissemination practices for the Conosi application and various services, features, or functionalities offered through our application (collectively, the “Conosi Platform”). A user of the Conosi Platform is hereinafter referred to as “you”, “User”, and/or “Users.”

By using the Conosi Platform, you do hereby warrant and represent that you have read, understand and agree to all terms and conditions stated herein, including our Terms of Use, available here Terms of Use, which is incorporated herein by reference, which govern the use of the services offered by Conosi, and that you are giving Conosi permission to use and store such information consistent with this Privacy Policy and our Terms of Use. If you do not agree, or you do not feel comfortable with, any portion or provision of the Terms of Use or of this Privacy Policy, you must not use or access the Conosi Platform.

Links and Information

This app platform may contain links to other websites. Please review Section 12 of our Terms of Use, available at Terms of Use, for more information.

Terms of Use

Please also visit our Terms of Use section establishing the use, disclaimers, and limitations of liability governing the use of the Conosi Platform, available here Terms of Use.

Conosi does not permit children or anyone under 18 years of age to use the Conosi Platform. By using the Conosi Platform, you represent (i) you are not under 18 years of age.

I. Information Received by Conosi

When you make use of the Conosi Platform, we may collect or receive, automatically or through your voluntary submissions, certain information about you to provide, maintain, and improve our services. The types of information we may collect are as follows.

A. Personal Information. Conosi may collect a variety of personal information, including but not limited to:

- Contact Information such as your name, phone number, email address, and general location.

- Information Relevant for Professional Networking, including but not limited to employment/work history, current work affiliation, educational history and/or educational credentials
- Payment and Billing Information, including but not limited to bank name, payment method, billing name, and home address (collectively, “Financial Information”).
- Submission of Reviews, Ratings, Comments, and Posts We may collect information that you voluntarily provide as part of the Conosi Platform, including messages, posts, comments, direct messages, responses, reviews, and ratings you submit through the Conosi Platform, (“User Generated Content”). Conosi may in our sole discretion share your User Generated Content with others such as your reviews. If you do not want certain information shared with others, you should not submit User Generated Content, or should not submit User Generated Content that contains information or personal information you do not want shared in this manner. Once you have submitted User Generated Content, we reserve the right to publish it in any medium to others.

You voluntarily provide this information during account registration, when updating your profile, contacting Conosi for support, signing up for marketing and advertising, or, once the Marketplace is operational, participating as either a buyer or seller in the Conosi Marketplace, or otherwise accessing the Conosi Platform.

B. Anonymous or Aggregated Data. Conosi may alone, or in conjunction with one or more third-party service providers, collect and store certain data about the use of the Conosi Platform on an aggregate and/or anonymous basis. This may include general usage patterns, such as the frequency with which Users interact with posts, public and/or private groups, or resources. Conosi does not link this information to anything personally identifiable to you.

C. Technical Information and Advertising Technologies. Conosi may collect and store information about you and your device(s) automatically when you access or use the Conosi Platform. This information may include your IP address, your device type, operating system, and browser information relating to your usage of the Platform, and user tracking technologies such as cookies, web beacons, pixels, clear GIFs, or other similar technologies. This technical data helps us understand how Users navigate the Conosi Platform, understand our Users and identify products, services, and functionalities that might be of interest, identify technical issues, and optimize performance.

1. IP Address. When you visit and interact with the Conosi Platform, Conosi and/or third parties providing services to Conosi may collect your Internet Protocol Address (“IP Address”), which is a number that is automatically assigned to the device that you are using to access the Platform by your Internet Service Provider. This number is identified and logged automatically whenever you visit the Platform, along with the date(s) and time(s) of your visit(s) and the page(s) that you visited. IP Addresses may be used by Conosi and/or third parties to analyze trends, monitor the regions from which Users access the Conosi Platform, detect and prevent fraud, and for other administrative purposes.

2. Site Usage Information. We may collect information about how you interact with the Conosi Platform, such as the webpage you visited immediately before or after visiting the Platform, or the profiles, groups, features, and links you visited on our Platform. We collect this information to understand how Users interact with the Platform and to improve each User's experience.

3. Cookies. Like many platforms, we may use "cookies" to collect information. A cookie is a small data file that we transfer to your computer's hard drive for record-keeping purposes. Conosi uses cookies to provide and improve services through the Conosi Platform. We may utilize persistent cookies that only Conosi can read and use, or session ID cookies that are deleted from your hard drive when you log off from Conosi Platform and then close your browser. Third-party advertisers on the Conosi Platform may also place or read cookies on your browser and we may use Flash cookies (or local shared objects) to store your preferences or display content based upon what you view on our Platform to personalize your visit.

How We Use Persistent Cookies. We may use persistent cookies to save your login information for future logins to the Conosi Platform, store session information, and help us track your preferences to tailor advertisements and content on the Conosi Platform to your interests.

How We Use Session ID Cookies. We may utilize session ID cookies to enable certain features of the Conosi Platform, better understand how Users interact with the Conosi Platform, monitor overall usage, identify visited areas, and optimize traffic flow across the Conosi Platform.

How to Manage Cookies. When you access the Conosi Platform, you may opt to stop accepting cookies or to be prompted before accepting a cookie from the Conosi Platform or its third-party advertisers. If you do not accept cookies, however, you may not be able to use all portions or all functionalities of the Conosi Platform.

4. Web Beacons. We may also use "web beacons," also known as "pixel tags" or "clear GIFs," or similar means in connection with the Conosi Platform to, among other things, track the actions of Users and email recipients, to measure the performance of the Platform, to track how Users engage with the Platform, monitor the effectiveness of marketing campaigns, measure response rates, and gather aggregated analytics. This information is collected anonymously and in a manner that does not personally identify you. Web beacons are typically embedded invisibly on webpages or in an email.

5. Log File Information. Log file information is automatically reported by your browser each time you make a request to access (i.e., visit) a web page or app. It can also be provided when the content of the webpage or app is downloaded to your browser or device. When you use our Conosi Platform, servers may automatically record certain log file information, including your web request, Internet Protocol ("IP") address, browser type, referring / exit pages and URLs, number of clicks and how you interact with links on the Conosi Platform, domain names, landing pages, pages viewed, and other such information. We may also collect similar information from emails sent to our Users that then help us track which emails are opened and which links are clicked by recipients. The information helps us improve our messaging and refine the Conosi Platform.

6. Metadata. Metadata is usually technical data that is associated with User Content. For example, Metadata can describe how, when, and by whom certain actions were taken on the Conosi Platform, such as when you created your account, or updated your profile. Conosi may also collect metadata related to your interaction with the content of other Users. This Metadata helps us improve Conosi Platform's functionality, personalize your experience, and enhance the Conosi Platform relevancy of future recommendations.

II. Conosi's Use of Personal Information

Two things drive Conosi's decisions regarding the use of information collected from Users: 1) providing, tailoring, and improving User experience by offering more relevant and personalized services and content and 2) conducting internal market research to enhance the Conosi Platform and the services and functionality available through the Conosi Platform. As such, Conosi utilizes User personal information for the following general purposes:

- for billing, identification, and authentication, and fraud prevention;
- for internal market research and trend forecasting related to User engagement with features, functions, and services of the Conosi Platform;
- for troubleshooting technical issues and protecting against fraud, misuse or other prohibited activities;
- for direct communications with Users, including notifications regarding account status and important Platform changes;
- to personalize, improve, and facilitate advertising and marketing efforts, including sending promotional messages, offers, and surveys (subject to applicable law and your communication preferences);
- to engage and facilitate services provided by, third-party service providers who assist in operating the Conosi Platform, including, but not limited to, analytics providers, payment processors, and, specifically, Supabase;
- in order to receive support and/or services from third parties that may provide Conosi with AI-driven tools and infrastructure, Conosi may utilize services from companies such as, but not limited to, OpenAI;
- as required to maintain legal and regulatory compliance;
- to enforce our Terms of Use; and
- as otherwise set forth in the Privacy Policy.

Although we encourage third parties receiving your information to utilize privacy restrictions at least as restrictive as those set forth in this policy, Conosi cannot guarantee third-party privacy policies will be so restrictive and is not responsible for any issues that may arise regarding the privacy policies of any of its Associates. By using the Conosi Platform, you do hereby agree to hold Conosi harmless from any claims and/or damages that may arise from the actions of any of its affiliates and/or advertisers.

Conosi may use cookies and other technologies and personal information to place information and/or advertisements where we believe interested parties will see them.

Conosi may analyze personal information and web navigational data based on your interests and may use the analysis from this information in a way that does not reveal a User's personal information ("Market Research") in order to:

- Market the Conosi Platform to new Users;
- Develop, test, maintain, and/or improve the Conosi Platform;
- Enhance the relevance of posts, resources, profiles, public and/or private groups, and/or advertisements shown to groups of Users with similar interests;
- Offer products, services, and functionality that we determine may be of interest to Users;
- Ensure the Conosi Platform experience is relevant to the collective interests of our Users.

At the individual level, Conosi may use personal information to promote products, services, and offers that align with a User's expressed interests or presumed interests based on broader Market Research insights.

Conosi may use your phone number and/or email, if provided, to call, text, or email you in order to provide services or features associated with the Conosi Platform.

Financial Information is used solely to process authorized payments in connection with your use of the Conosi Platform.

III. Conosi's Information Retention Policy

Unless we are required to retain User personal information by law, Conosi will have no obligation to retain information submitted by Users from the date we become aware that a User has ceased using the Conosi Platform. It is each User's responsibility to contact us upon ceasing using the Conosi Platform. We may retain non-personally identifiable User information indefinitely, unless we are required to delete it by law, for the purposes of backups, archiving, fraud and abuse prevention, analytics, or for other reasons which we reasonably believe to be necessary or desirable for the continued operation and maintenance of the Conosi Platform. If required by law, we will delete User information by erasing it from our systems. We will also respond to User requests to delete or correct account or personal information, which you can do by terminating your account or contacting Conosi at conosiapp@gmail.com. Additionally, any direct communications you send to our support email or employees may be retained for a lawful period. (See Section IV. for how Conosi's third party vendors may use and retain personal information.)

IV. With Whom Does Conosi Share Information?

Conosi will not sell, share, disclose, transfer, give, or exchange any User personal information collected through the Conosi Platform to a non-affiliated third party without User consent, except as provided in this Privacy Policy.

Conosi reserves the right to disclose User personal information from both private and public areas of the Conosi Platform, at our discretion, if: (1) disclosure is required by law or we have a good faith belief that disclosure is required by law; (2) we believe, in our sole discretion, that someone is causing injury to or interference with the rights of Users, the general public, or Conosi; (3) we believe, in our sole discretion, that disclosure is necessary to enforce the Conosi Platform's policies, as described in Conosi's Terms of Use and this Privacy Policy.

Conosi may also disclose User Financial Information to one or more third party payment service provider (a "PSP"), for the processing of payments of Service Agreements (as that term is defined in the Conosi Terms of Use).

Additionally, Conosi reserves the right to transfer, sell and/or distribute all information collected through the Conosi Platform to an affiliate, subsidiary, or third party in the event of any reorganization, merger, sale, joint venture, assignment, transfer, or other disposition of all or part of our business, assets, or stock. We will use our best efforts to ensure that the new entity follows this Privacy Policy with respect to your personal information, as and to the extent required by applicable law.

Agents, Consultants, and Related Third-Party Services

Conosi uses third-party service providers to perform certain operations and platform-related functions. Examples of such functions includes, but is not limited to, database provisioning and maintenance, information storage, application development, payment processing, analytics and performance monitoring, and tracking and reporting application usage to improve the Conosi Platform and/or the User experience. When Conosi works with such third-party service providers, Conosi will, when practicable, limit the personal information provided to them. When practicable, we will request that each third-party is required to keep such information confidential and to use it only for the purpose of providing services to Conosi.

Some of the third parties that provide operational services for Conosi have their own terms of service and privacy policies. While the privacy and security of confidential information is important to us, the handling, storage, security, and use of this information will be governed by the policies of each respective third-party service. If you do not wish to rely on the policies of such third parties, you should not use our Platform. We urge you to review the Terms of Use and Privacy policies of such third parties here: Terms of Use.

Occasionally, at our discretion, we may include or offer third party products or services through links on our Platform. These third party platforms have separate and independent privacy policies. We therefore have no responsibility or liability for the content and activities of these linked platforms. Nonetheless, we seek to protect the integrity of our Platform and welcome any feedback about these platforms

V. How does Conosi Protect User Information?

The security of User information is very important to Conosi. When practicable to do so, we use, and request any third-party service provider to use reasonable and appropriate security measures within the Conosi Platform. We request similar measures on any third-party servers to help protect the integrity and security of personal information that we collect and maintain. However, online activity and electronic information is never fully secure, and we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us or store on the Conosi Platform, and you do so at your own risk. We also cannot guarantee that such information may not be accessed, disclosed, altered, or destroyed by breach of any of our physical, technical, or managerial safeguards. If we learn of a security systems breach, then we may attempt to notify you electronically so that you can take appropriate protective steps. Depending on where you live, you may have a legal right to receive notice of a security breach in writing.

Please also recognize that protecting your information is your responsibility as well as ours. Each User is urged to take available precautions to protect their personal information before disclosing it online. Such precautions include regularly changing your passwords, not disclosing your personal information to anyone unaffiliated with Conosi or Conosi's Agents, and immediately contacting us in the event you suspect your account has been accessed without authorization or is otherwise no longer secure.

VI. How Can Users Edit Their Information?

Conosi believes strongly in giving you the ability to access and edit your personal information. However, your information can only be updated after you have logged in to your account in order to prevent your information from being accessible by third parties. From your Profile page, you can view, update and correct your account information. You may edit your account information at any time—all you need is your username and password.

VII. Notification of changes

Conosi's security and Privacy Policy are periodically reviewed and enhanced as necessary. This Privacy Policy might change as Conosi updates and expands the application and Conosi Platform. Conosi will endeavor to notify you of these changes by email or by our in-app notification system, but will not be liable for any failure to do so. Conosi also encourages you to review this Privacy Policy periodically.

IX. California Residents

The California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (CCPA) provides California residents with specific rights regarding their Personal Information. Many of its provisions do not yet apply to Conosi but may in the future. Learn more about the CCPA here. <https://oag.ca.gov/privacy/ccpa>

IX. International Users

Conosi is based in the United States. Accordingly, regardless of where you access our Conosi Platform or make use of the services provided through the Conosi Platform, the information we collect as part of that use will be transferred to and maintained on servers located in the United States. Any information we collect will be stored in accordance with United States privacy laws, regulations, and standards. These laws, regulations, and standards may not be the same as your country of residence. You are hereby advised that by making use of the Conosi Platform, you consent to our collection, transfer, storage, and processing of your information to and in the United States, and that we are not responsible for any User misunderstandings resulting from discrepancies between United States privacy laws, regulations, or standards, and those in your country of residence. Any User located outside of the United States who chooses to use the Conosi Platform is responsible for ensuring that such information conforms to all local data protection laws.

X. Safety Tips

The safety of our Users is very important to us. There are steps that each User should follow when using the Conosi Platform to protect their personal information and ensure a safe experience. Please take a few minutes to read these tips.

Keep Your Personal Information Private

Be careful about sharing personal information, such as your full name, phone number, email, address and location.

Note: Conosi will never share your Conosi passwords, account numbers, or payment information via email, text, or direct message. Any communication requesting this type of information should be reported to Conosi immediately.

While the Conosi Platform has features that allow for interactions between or among Users, please be mindful that Conosi does not vet its Users. While we hope the Conosi Platform will be a positive environment, we can provide no assurance with respect to any User of the Conosi Platform, so we urge all Users to be mindful of general safety practices. Therefore, please be mindful that any personal information you disclose to any other User through User Generated Content, creating an account, or accessing the Conosi Platform, is done at your own risk. We advise you to not disclose any personal information to any other User or to provide any other information that you do not want others to know.

Spam/Scammers

There are red flags to watch out for that may indicate you're dealing with a scammer or bad actor. Be aware of anyone who:

- Sends you messages containing links to third-party websites

- Claims to represent Conosi but communicates through unofficial channels, such as social media direct messages
- Quickly asks to talk or chat outside of Conosi
- Vanishes mysteriously then reappears under a different name, account, or profile.

The U.S. Federal Trade Commission's advice to avoid online scams is available at <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/topics/online-security>.

Report Suspicious Users

Please report anyone who violates our terms of use. Examples of terms of use violations include:

- User providing false or misleading account information
- Fraudulent profiles or accounts
- Spam or solicitation, such as promoting unrelated products or services
- Abusive or harassing communications directed toward Conosi staff or other Users.

XI. A Special Note for Parents and Legal Guardians

In addition, Conosi does not permit anyone under 18 years of age to use the Conosi Platform. By using our Conosi Platform, you represent (i) you are not under 18 years of age. As used herein, "you" refers to all Conosi Platform users over the age of 18, who have registered with Conosi, as applicable.

In compliance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998, 15 U.S.C. § § 6501-06 and 16 C.F.R. § § 312.1-312.12, no one under age 13 may use or provide any personal information to or on the Conosi Platform. We do not knowingly collect personal information from or about children under 13. If you are under 13, do not use or provide any information on this Conosi Platform or on or through any of its features/register on the Conosi Platform, make any purchases through the Conosi Platform, use any of the interactive or public comment features of this Conosi Platform or provide any information about yourself to us, including your name, address, telephone number, email address, or any screen name or user name you may use. If we learn we have collected or received personal information from a child under 13 without verification of parental consent, we will delete that information. If you believe we might have any information from or about a child under 13, please contact us at conosiapp@gmail.com.

XII. Contacting Conosi Staff

If you have technical problems, questions or other issues related to your use of the application or the Conosi Platform, please contact us at conosiapp@gmail.com.

Conosi's staff will respond to all requests sent through mail or email from Users interested in knowing more about what personal information is stored on the Conosi database, or if they want their personal information nullified, or have additional questions regarding privacy.

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy, the practices of the Platform, or your dealings with the Platform, you may contact us at conosiapp@gmail.com
