

Climate Change Feedback Oral Presentation Criteria

Knowledge and Understanding: _____/7

Mark	Knowledge and Understanding of Subject Matter
6 - 7	- Understands the subject in depth - Explains main points thoroughly - All main points have supporting arguments - All arguments fully supported by relevant facts/data - Graphs and statistics included in presentation - Explanations of arguments are detailed and thorough
4 - 5	- Understands most of the main points but lacks depth in certain areas - Explains most of the main points - Most of the main points have supporting arguments - Generally supports arguments with relevant facts/data - Some graphs and statistics are included in the presentation - Some detail in explanations
2 - 3	- Some understanding of subject but lacks depth - Explains some of the main points with arguments - Minimal support of main points with arguments - Minimal support of arguments with relevant facts/data - Limited use of graphs and statistics in presentation - Explanations missing detail
0 - 1	The presentations does not reach a standard described by the descriptors.

Communication: _____/7

Mark	Organization of Presentation and Use of Language
6 - 7	- Presentation is very well organized and clearly demonstrates the main points and supporting arguments - Visual aids lead to clarity and greater understanding - Most information is delivered orally - Language used is precise, scientific and specific - All facts and images are appropriately referenced according to a standard referencing convention (MLA) "Works Cited" page present and complete
4 - 5	- Presentation is generally well organized, with some errors or omissions - Visual aids generally lead to clarity and greater understanding - Information is generally delivered orally - Language used is generally precise and scientific, with some errors or omissions - Most facts and images are appropriately referenced according to a standard referencing convention (MLA) "Works Cited" page present but incomplete
2 - 3	- Some evidence of organization, but presentation is scattered and difficult to follow - Visual aids are present, but do not lead to clarity or further understanding - Some information is delivered orally, but student relies heavily on visual text - Language used is often imprecise and/or unscientific - Some facts and images are appropriately referenced according to a standard referencing convention (MLA) "Works Cited" page present but incomplete
0 - 1	The presentation does not reach a standard described by the descriptors.