

Bellum Troianum -- Chapter 11 Reading Comprehension

Directions: Answer the following questions based on chapter 11 of Bellum Troianum. When appropriate, please cite the Latin that informs your answer.

1. To where do the Trojans go on the next day? What are they expecting to find there and what is their goal? What do they find instead?
2. Who is the man that they encounter? Why does he say that he is there at this time? Is his story believable based on the story so far?
3. What does King Priam offer this man? What does this show about the king?
4. What does this man explain about the origins of the object before them? Is this story believable based on the story so far?
5. Who tries to intervene? What does this person claim about the object and about the man?
6. What does the person in question number 5 try to do? What's the result?
7. What do the onlookers surmise based on what just happened before their eyes? Why do you think that they come to this conclusion?