

Debate on the US withdrawal from the Paris Climate Agreement, WHO and USAID

- Commission: the most affected individuals by climate change, security, and stability are all under threat. Global solidarity is needed. The Paris Agreement is a breakthrough in multilateralism, for more than a decade, we worked on this document. We regret the withdrawal from the new US Administration. We continue to engage on a private level with the US government. We remain committed to addressing climate change ahead of COP 30.
The withdrawal from the WHO is another concern. Pandemics know no borders it affected international cooperation, economy, and health. The WHO is a cornerstone of international health cooperation, we stand firm behind the WHO to protect the most vulnerable. We are the largest contributor to the WHO, and we will continue with that.
USAID supported millions of lives. But which projects are lifesaving? The long-term interests of the USA are affected by this approach. It affects the international community.
This vacuum opens the way for anti-western narratives. We reassure you, however, that we will not step back from our development and humanitarian assistance. Advancing global development and combating poverty remain our priorities.
The humanitarian system is underfunded, the EU and its member states cannot fill the gap. Everyone must help as an international community.
The executive orders from President Trump will have a serious impact on the multilateral system. This challenges international cooperation, security and public health.
Our multilateral system is far from perfect, but listening to the rules is essential in this regard. We therefore continue to work with the EU.
- Szczerba: This debate was needed. we do not always agree with the US, but based on trust and mutual understanding, we can implement our global aims. Security, welfare and democracy. This dialogue will start in Munich, Poland and America are strong allies. Welfare is not only trade, dialogue and common values are important.
- Chahim: China accelerates. Their economy is booming due to the withdrawal of the USA. Trump will make America late again.
- Knotek: EU is struggling, and emissions are rising. The Green Deal is death. Global reality of Climate change: no coal power plants must be shut before there is a replacement. We must leave the WHO.
- Vondra: China does not care about our approach. The US made a U-turn, Indonesia and Argentina also. EU is on the wrong track, the Green Deal needs reform. It is self-inflicted harm. We must do more.
- Andrews: The vandalism from Trump will have worldwide implications. The EU is doing the same. We must step in to promote solidarity in the world, including to the organizations.
- Bloss: The EU must have submitted its NCDs. We must comply with the Paris Agreement. We must comply so that others follow suit.
- Sjöstedt: Trump's politics are like bullies in the schoolyard. His policies help the rich. We must reduce our emissions. We must place tariffs on our products.
- Anderson: We need to end the climate change, USAID. WHO are bureaucrats for big pharma. Trump shows us the way; we should follow this direction.

Debate on the US withdrawal from the Paris Climate Agreement, WHO and USAID

- Liese: The US has enacted a catastrophe, but we should not give up the fight. Under Trump, we decided on climate neutrality, and we need to continue with that.
- Bullmann: Punitive tariffs on allies, undermining development agendas etc. This is not the Washington as we know it. Uncivilized. China reaps the rewards. We must stand against it.
- Corrêa: The US left the WHO. The reason why they did this was because it was dirty. The WHO, is fantastic, but they create pandemics. They do not protect citizens.
- Zalewska: The Green Deal is failing.
- Barna: A strong Europe means a strong America. We must be the new visionaries.
- Marino: The US withdrawal from the WHO is a threat to global stability. The poorest suffer the most. We must step up.
- Sánchez: Trump is a techno government. Hate your neighbor is what he says. The EU in the meantime, is defending genocide and multilateral cooperation.
- Sell: 20 million dollars to film in Iraq, millions in condoms. 40 million wasted. We wasted too much money, the German government wasted money.
- Dostál: we are reminded that it is possible to leave from international organizations. The WHO used to be a good organization. But Covid showed how it was failing. The EU is based on treaties, we must realize that we need to take responsibility.
- Sokol: Public Health and multilateral cooperation is important. protecting diseases must be united. The WHO must improve its work.
- Andriukaitis: The US acted shameful. WHO protects girls and the entire world. Pandemics and epidemics are protected by the WHO. They saved countless lives.
- Annemans: We must welcome the USA in what they do. That age is done, the left-wing globalists are gone.
- Torselli: Do we have arguments against the US? Some rules in this house have led to damage. The WHO and pharmaceutical companies are interlinked. These are not choices; we need to be transparent.
- Goerens: The US is not our guardian. Reproductive health needs to be protected. We can do a lot more and better. We must improve our diplomacy and budgetary funding to assist development.
- Shilling: Old white man destroys our future. We cannot give up our fight.
- Botenga: The USA also withdrew from the UNHRC. This government promotes genocide and sanctions. Why is Europe not standing up? Are we afraid?
- Arndt: Trump brought an end to our delusions.
- Mcallister: The US move was expected. USAID's demining efforts have ended.
- Wölken: The richest person took everything over. AFD is not interested in individuals. That is why they are fans of Donald Trump. We can stand up against him due to these withdrawals.
 - o Sell: Everyone is evil according to you.
- Wölken: We are under threat, thousands are victims. We vote for democracy. therefore, we have supporters.
- Sanchez: Trump angered the European Commission. Action reaction: every dollar in the US is analyzed. We keep adding more depth.

Debate on the US withdrawal from the Paris Climate Agreement, WHO and USAID

- Trochu: 22 million went to China. We finance our destruction. European citizens are financing our decay. Are our programs relevant? WHO is driven by ideology, sex education etc., and pandemics. They undermine sovereignty.
- Friss: The US will not be visible during negotiations. The US has turned its back on the WHO.
- Lövin: leaving big organizations. Trump wants a world where we lose. Abortion rights are trumped.
- Martins: Trump hates life and people. The WHO protects human life, abandoning it is cruelty.
 - o Sosoaca: I think you don't realize the accusations. The WHO is a criminal group that commits crimes against humanity.
- Martins: Conspiracies, when children die because of this. You should be ashamed of yourself.
- Stoyanov: Sovereignty, WHO failed to protect us from the COVID-19. Bulgaria failed due to the WHO.
- Kanev: Without the USA, the Paris Agreement is useless. We must be aware of this.
- Zingaretti: The WHO saved lives. Trump is wrong, we must tell the truth.
- Vidal: The Great Escape shows that development aid is counterproductive. The conditions to aid are not helpful. Growth and development come together.
- Berlato: Climate change is an expensive fairy tale. common senses are violated.
 - o Kanev: Are we in the same position regarding the Paris Agreement?
- Berlato: I agree with Trump, and I stressed the idea of abandoning the Paris Agreement and withdrawing from the WHO. I agree, but not everything.
- Wiezik: Trump is a far-right populist to divide. Elon Musk has unlimited power. The EU must withstand the pressure.
- Nordqvist: EU must step up. Climate change is a reality. We must step up in climate action.
- Palmisano: US tears apart the global community. Millions of lives are under threat.
- Mazurek: We waste our time, we lose here. Climate goals are pointless, average people are not able to buy something. The WHO belongs to Bill Gates in rich pharma companies.
- Pereira: we must improve our commitment to the WHO, with less USA, we need more Europe. Europe will not fail history.
- Temido: America First is a hostile statement. Climate emissions will only improve.
 - o Oliveira: The EU must take up all ideas of the US. Also, on COVID.
- Temido: The EU must step up.
- Ehlers: The EU citizens are in trouble. Development aid must stop.
 - o Stefanuta: We fight hard on migration. What will happen to people in North Africa?
- Ehlers: Our development does not help. We spend billions on transgender craziness we do not prevent them from migrating.
 - o Sieper: Transgender people calling crazy is hate speech.
- Farantouris: We do not deal with what we should do. We must guard legality and social policies. Common policies help this part.
- Smit: Ideologically crazy is the Paris Agreement. Who will bear the burden? Farmers and citizens. The US economy is growing, and we do nothing.

Debate on the US withdrawal from the Paris Climate Agreement, WHO and USAID

- o Strolenberg: Who are the people suffering on climate policy? The farmers themselves.
- Smit: We need to review the amount of money spent on a minor reduction of money.
- Decaro: Europa, we are crushed. Do we want a shy Europe following the suicide in US?
- Tertsch: How much hate speech has Trump already imposed? The far-left has created endless agencies, like the WHO. All this is going to disappear. The socialists stole enough from the citizens. A woke program. Timmerman's green religion must end.
- Laurent: Trump drives us away from cooperation. Health crises are not important for him. Development aid does not bother him.
- Haider: We can end the crazy mad policies of the Green Deal. These crazy people that are diluted can finally be stopped. Let's give Europe a future.
- Pajin: Multilateralism is at in crises. A lethal blow against pandemics. The largest aid organization in the world does not exist anymore. We must guarantee security in the world. Europe must respond quickly. Europe must continue to provide for aid.
- Joron: in 1 day, Trump made us look ridiculous. The WHO wasted enough money. Sex change operations were used. The WHO has nothing to do with sex and gender. Europe censored Trump's debate, so who is the perpetrator?
- Fritzon: We are not surprised. This is why we must continue in people and enterprises. I fear that the Commission is not up to the task. We must decide for ourselves what to do.
- Hauser: The left wing of this house hates Trump, but he was democratically elected. Millei has restored Argentina. Leaving the WHO is something we must do, COVID was mismanaged by them. The WHO adopted the IHR amendments; they did a power grab. Health care must remain sovereign.
- Biedron: Trump gives an oligarch country. The EU has the chance to step up right now. It is our moral duty. Show leadership, we cannot isolate ourselves from climate change. We need to restore our partnership.
- Frigout: Wake up! We destroyed our farmers and industry for an ideology that is not real. We must wake up from the Paris Agreement. China ignores these agreements without any consequences. It is economic suicide.
- Nikolic: Van der Leyden and here technocrats want to destroy the planet. Many countries banned fracking, but we still import it from America.
- Kelly: We must reach our targets, not reduce them. The States in the US still reach their goals. China must not control the WHO, so we must step in and invest in the WHO.
- Maij: Trump freezes billions of developments. That violates our values. It is a global trend, however, also in the EU. The Netherlands did this. This must be addressed. Urge member states to contribute to the ODA and sustain the SDG.
- Jungbluth: The debate insulted Trump and the US. Even called him a Neanderthal. Why are we criticizing? Trump will not listen to us. Von der Leyden was not invited to his inauguration. Do you think he cares about what we do?
- Sieper: The left wins by ideology. The right does not understand economics.
- Brnjac: Withdrawal from the WHO and the Paris Agreement makes us more committed to strengthening the Green Deal and the health systems.

Debate on the US withdrawal from the Paris Climate Agreement, WHO and USAID

- Wawrykiewicz: Conclusion: Europe must take responsibility. We must strengthen our resilience. Development goes down, but these organizations operate on the ground. We must help them. They are the democracy shield for us.
- Commission: What can and should we do? We must respond in line with our values. We will stand up for multilateral cooperation and cooperation. Our humanitarian action will continue, that is who we are and what our interest is. We hope that the US does the same. We advocate for that. We will analyze the review of the withdrawal and the impact of that. We must strengthen our cooperation to build a safer and more equitable world.
