

Travel to Elmhurst Ballet School

There are 2 rail lines from London - from Euston to Birmingham New Street and from Marylebone to Birmingham Moor Street (some trains go beyond these stations).

In the new May timetable, likely trains are from Euston 1038 (arr 1158), 1116 (arr 1254)
from Marylebone 1002 (arr 1205), 1102 (arr 1305)

The buses that pass Elmhurst are 61 and 63, destination Frankley. These have a combined frequency every 6 minutes. Journey time is 10-15 mins.

From Moor Street, turn right at station entrance and it is a short walk to stop MS16
At New Street find the Smallbrook Queensway exit and go to stop NS3 across the road.
New Street is a much bigger station and visitors can get lost more easily.

Buses take cash or contactless - currently single fare is £2.90 and the better value day ticket covering the return is £4.80. English concessionary passes and London Freedom passes are accepted on bus readers any time after 0930.

Alight bus at Priory Road before the school or stay on the bus to the next stop at Pebble Mill Road. Buses might have stop details shown visually or audibly. Elmhurst is across the road.

On return journey turn right out of entrance to Pebble Mill Road stop. 61 and 63 go back to both stations.

Trains to Marylebone at 1745, 1815, 1915
Fast trains to Euston at 1747, 1817, 1847
