SAY NO MORE. I'M SOOO IN!!

What do I mean by “Living an Intuitive Life”?

An intuitive life is a life lived in flow; connected to Source and guided by ease and clarity.

It's a life where you understand yourself deeply, and follow your inner GPS to an unfuckwithable confidence in the choices you make, and how you live your life.

An intuitive life includes all the psychic ‘clairs’ you’re thinking of, plus:

- knowing what’s right (& wrong) for you,
- accessing helpful information in advance,
- empathic sensitivity without overwhelm,
- connecting with a wider purpose & perspective.

Join to learn tools, rituals, and routines to cultivate a nourishing, reliable relationship with your intuitive self. In the process, you’ll come to trust your own rhythms and needs; uncover intuitive gifts and strengths, and experience your intuition ~daily~ as a source of clarity and authority.

WHO is this FOR?

Living Intuition is for you if you are:

♥ ALREADY INTUITIVE (or suspect you are)

You’re being called to deepen your connection with your inner knowing, your Self, your highest good. You’re innately sensitive (even if you had to shut that down over time). And you’re ready to be intentional about this part of your life.

You already know that a trustworthy relationship with your intuition helps stave off stress, reducing indecision & doubt. It restores joy to your everyday life; letting you be more confident, have better boundaries, and stop looking outside yourself for answers.

You recognize that when you’re in touch with your unique intuitive nature, you can trust yourself to live in a full and connected way, able to discern whether you’re being motivated by fear, anxiety, or a deeper purpose.

♥ SPIRITUALLY ORIENTED

You’re drawn to, even ambitious about, self development. You’re curious about inner arts, parapsychology, and holistic well-being; you’ve been ‘seeking’ & experimenting for years.

You've read the books, taken the workshops, got the certifications, and have a collection of oracle decks, crystals or singing bowls. This stuff isn't brand new to you, but you're ready to go deeper.

Maybe intuitive knowing runs in your family. Over the years, people have told you that you have a knack or natural talent for it, but you don't really do anything with it. Now, you know it's time.

♥ SMART

You're used to being the smartest in the room, and you want to be among people who get it. You want to know that all the weird and wacky things that come out of your mouth are actually welcome.

Even though you've done all this work, you still feel like a mess half the time. (Join the club.) Maybe you're an over-thinker and it gets in the way of sensing your intuitive awareness.

You have all the information (or know where to get it) but you want personalized guidance and practices to enhance your innate ability to connect & access intuitive wisdom.

♥ SINCERE

You've had a string of teachers, mentors, and therapists over the years, in real life & on insta. You're mostly self taught but maybe not consistent with any one practice or routine. You long for a morning ritual, or some routine that will keep you motivated to do the practices you know you need to do.

You need your intuition now. You're ready to be a bit more intentional about your life, and there are important decisions to make.

You identify as a creative, scholar, artist, activist, gardener, storyteller. You're engaged in making the world a better place.

You're craving community and a sense of belonging. You know it's time to invest in a bigger version of yourself so you can be a strong leader, a healthy partner, a connected parent - and honestly, to just feel better.

The CURRICULUM

The core modules and expert workshops cover themes such as:

- embodying the Intuition, Resonance, Connection framework; excavating our unhelpful beliefs about intuition, creating resonant awareness, & cultivating trustworthy discernment;
- 4 types of intuitive experience, including the psychic 'clairs' (clairvoyance, clairaudience, clairsentience, etc), embodied resonance, and identifying your unique intuitive tells;
- the role of creativity, contemplation, practice, and rituals in developing intuition as a relationship-with-self;
- experiencing vibes, the energy body, resonance, multi-dimensionality;
- claiming intuitive authority, meeting the inner witness & alchemizing the inner critic, overcoming doubt, building evidence, being ethical
- neuro-diversity and intuitive sensitivity

The Living Intuition curriculum is emergent & will be responsive to what arises.

The COMMUNITY

As good as this curriculum is, the real juice is in the community. Accountability and inspiration for cultivating a personal practice is what truly leads you home to your intuitive self.

This program brings together a stellar group of creative, interesting, compassionate, and generous seekers. We uplift and celebrate each other, learn from each other, and the practice circle becomes a sanctuary of support and integration. It's what keeps people re-enrolling.

We keep the cohort small enough that every person gets to be seen for who they uniquely are; themselves. Even though the Living Intuition Practice Circle meets online, each session feels like a real, live gathering (because it is!).

"Being in community with like-minded folks gave me much needed support during some difficult life transitions this year." ~Judith, artist & counsellor

"I was skeptical about doing this kind of inner work with other people (strangers!). But this program has been a safe, gentle, loving space to become more myself. The connection between the participants, and the ability to learn from one another, exceeded my expectations." ~Justine, project manager

Why now? Why this program?

Hi! I'm Emily:)

I'm a facilitator, writer, and intuitive leadership coach, and your guide through this program. As a life-long educator and energy-sensitive, my purpose in developing Intuitive Life Practice has been to support myself and others to reclaim and cultivate our intuitive wisdom. To that end, I have done years of study, coached and mentored many clients, and even wrote a whole dang book about intuition.

My recipe for transformation includes evidence-based research and woo-woo magick shit. I keep it real, don't shy away from politics or culture, and have a sense of humour about the world ... and spiritual practice.

There are so many ways you could invest in your intuitive life. You've probably tried some of them already. But a community program that includes live meetings and direct access to its teacher... that's rare! The people I gather are smart, sensitive, ethical, & interesting. Here's my invitation to you: Trust your intuition and give yourself permission to be in the room where this happens.

I'm so excited to share this curriculum and community with you because I know it works. You will learn to recognize your unique intuitive advantage, and gain a relationship with your intuition that can guide your whole life to have more purpose, more confidence, and more ease.

Here's what some former participants have to say:

"This has been one of the most important and life changing experiences. I've developed abilities I did not know were humanly possible ... I am a better person, a better mom, a better worker and therefore attract better relationships and opportunities."
~Justine, project manager, Montreal

**

"I have experienced a lot of personal development modalities. I wasn't sure if this program would be too surface-level. But the workshops were great! They were in-depth and backed with research – beyond woo woo. This program has helped me bring discipline into my intuitive life, making it into a daily practice. It's deeper than other personal development programs" ~Aadita, Toronto

**

"What impressed me most about the Living Intuition program was how thoughtful the community and care was. I was worried about showing up for sessions after a long day of work, but we were always welcome to show up in our jammies, or with our dinner. The regular sessions helped me nurture the connection to myself and my inner practice. I've started connecting to my inner self to guide me for decisions I need to make, whether big or small." ~Andraya

**

"This past year, I moved into self-employment which came with a lot of increased anxiety. This program has been a foundational piece of my self care and development. In this well-facilitated and safe community, I have learned to listen to the cues from my intuition (as opposed to external pressures). I trust myself so much more now." ~Judith, artist & counsellor

**

“This is an incredibly enriching experience!!! It will stretch your knowledge and broaden your view about intuition, yourself in relation to your life, actions, choices, and the world in general. I have come to appreciate my own intuition, and gained greater clarity and being-in-the-world.” ~SV, lawyer

**

“This program reminded me about the calm that can still exist in my life if I make space for it. Thank you for helping me re-focus on my intuition and learn how to listen to it.” ~MR, Vancouver

FAQ

How does this program work?

The program takes place online. Every month, there are 2 live integration circles and 1 live masterclass. You'll also have the option to stay connected with fellow practitioners through a whatsapp group.

When you sign up, you're committing for a minimum of 6 months. Then, you can stay on, month-to-month, for as long as you want.

How much time will this take up each month?

Expect program offerings to add up to about 5 hours/month for the scheduled meetings. Most of the recommended practices are done in a way that's integrated into your regular life.

Keep in mind: This program is an opportunity for you to make time for personal and spiritual development. You can participate as much or as little as you want.

When are the sessions? What's the schedule?

Twice monthly practice/integration circles are held on a Tuesday (7pm) and Sunday (10:30 am). You're encouraged to come to both, if you can.

Monthly masterclasses will typically be on a Tuesday evening (7pm) as well. You'll get the most out of these if you come live, but they will be recorded, so you can catch up any time.

Once we receive payment, you'll receive an orientation email with all the links and dates, plus your next steps.

Is this psychic development training?

Kind of? It's intuition development, which is broader than, and somewhat different from, psychic ability. Though you can expect your psychic capacity to expand, alongside other forms of intuitive experience, that will be because you will learn to know yourself as intuitive through deepening your relationship with your unique way(s) of being intuitive.

Think of Living Intuition as a complement to other healing arts, mediumship, self-development, etc. It's perfect if you have any training in healing or other intuitive modalities, but don't feel as confident as you want to be.

The curriculum is emergent, and responsive to participants' needs & interests. We'll be focusing on accessing intuition in all aspects of our lives, and allowing it to enrich our lived experience in general.

Does the program include 1:1 coaching?

Our integration circles will typically include time for you to ask questions and receive individual guidance and mentorship within the group setting. If you're looking for more personalized support, Living Intuition participants are welcome to book unlimited single session 1:1 coaching sessions while actively enrolled.

Can I cancel my subscription anytime?

There are no refunds available for the pay-in-full option. We encourage you to commit for the whole 6 months, however if emergencies or unforeseen circumstances come up, we can accommodate by deferring your payment for up to 4 months.

Other questions? Message hello@emilysadowski.com and let's talk about it.
