

Objectives

TYPE OF TRADER

I believe that i am a Reversal trade because i am always looking for a reversal and very delta oriented with a very free flowing mind set and i am always looking to get in a trade with a very active mind set

TIME AVAILABILITY

I believe that I can be a scalper because i have around 8 hours in the morning to trade and 4 to 6 hours on the weekend to get ready for the week

RISK PROFILE

I am risk average because i don't have a steady source of income but i don't have any, overhead and bills to pay at this moment, but i also need to make a lot of money in a short time frame so i am will need to get bigger wins but try to make the loses as little as possible because i only have a 2,000 dollar account.
