

Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)

Over the past 30 years there has been greater controversy over ADHD. There is no doubt that it exists, but is everyone that is diagnosed really have it? Research the topic by answering the following questions:

Below each response*, create a citation with the name of the article, year it was written, and the author's name in APA Format. You should have a minimum of 3 or more sources for all of the questions as a whole* If you need help creating citations, go to mybib.com

1. Explain what ADHD is.

Fill in the answer: ADHD (attention deficit hyperactivity disorder) is _____

CITATION:

2. How many children are diagnosed in America with ADHD? How many adults are diagnosed with ADHD?

Fill in the answer: In America _____ children are diagnosed With ADHD.

CITATION:

3. Have more people been diagnosed with ADHD over the past 30 years? Explain.

CITATION:

4. Why are males more often diagnosed than females?

CITATION:

5. What causes ADHD? Why are scientists still in debate about what causes it?

Fill in the answer: The causes of ADHD are _____

_____.

Scientists are still in debate about what causes it because _____

_____.

CITATION:

6. What medications are prescribed for those with ADHD? What are the medications' side effects?

Fill in the answer: The medications that are prescribed for those with ADHD are the following: _____

_____.

CITATION:

7. What are some natural things that parents/people can do to help with ADHD?

Fill in the answer: Some natural things that parents/people can do to help with ADHD are things like _____

_____.

CITATION:

8. How do people about ADHD feel about their dilemma? [get a personal account, blog, webpage for this one]

Fill in the answer: People that have ADHD may have a dilemma and may feel _____

_____.

CITATION: