Director Updates:

Brian- commissioning project for 8th graders. Piece is amazing- Pillars of Gold that coincides with RGMS new Behavioral Incentive. Premier at the May 7th Spring Concert. Gearing up for the trip. Rehearsals- the first is Feb 24, Tuesday and then 3 more.

Sara- Chip sent Chaperon list. Bus/Room lists- reviewing lists to make sure every student is assigned a room and bus. Voting is going on for the color of the trip shirt. Feb 20th- payment still TBD. Parent meeting March 23rd for the trip at 7:30- mandatory.

Varden- Uniforms are getting close to final production. Jazz Festival- 24 students picked! District Band- 17 students in February. If anyone has questions about how students are selected for district band- let the directors know. Children of directors receive a complimentary invite as a courtesy to the director. This spot does not take away another students' chances of making the district band. If we as parents or boosters hear any discussions that state otherwise, please direct them towards our band/musician directors. Jazz/The Vault has invited us back to use 4 hrs of studio time for $140.00. Pizza for after the activity? And possible Jazz "hangout" for all the jazz students, play some music, Pizza for after? Approved by the Band Boosters for funding the pizza for these gatherings.

Patty Wagner- Daughter on Poms- asked about accounting skills needed for treasurer? Amanda explained her process. Organization is a must. A space at home to keep separate.

Kate- uniforms- new Colorguard uniforms. Not sure if they will get them for the trip. Directors are ok with using them for the trip. Hand in old uniforms at uniform fittings.

Try on uniform in February to make sure it still fits.

Reorder of dinkles will be available as well.

Patty Wagner- recruit more volunteers for next year. Kate added-At the uniform fittings, tables set up to talk to people and sign up sheets.

Construction- drop off procedure- still figuring that out right now.

The band booster shed was discussed and making sure the district is aware that it does belong to the boosters and to reach out to the directors or Kate if it needs to be moved for the construction.
