

About the rewards

- What you read in the rewards description is what you get;
- Once you receive your reward, it reset and it will start counting again from the day you received your last reward;
 - When you reach its limit, it doesn't stack beyond what's in the reward's description;

Rules

- No human or demi-human preds:
 - Ex.: Goblins, Orcs, Elves, Nekos, etc.;
- I mostly draw belly related stuff, I'll listen and give it a shot at different ideas, but I'm less likely to take it depending on what it is:
 - Ex.: I mainly draw Vore (various types), Pregnancy, Stuffing/Feeding;
- Only ask for your reward when you've reached your milestone;
- You must reach out to me (via DMs on Discord) to claim your reward, don't expect me to go after you for them;
- You can ask to be anonymous or keep it private;
- I don't want to feature my characters in your rewards;
- You need to provide a character reference as well as:
 - Character(s) name(s);
 - Your page's username and of the other person if they're featured (like X/BlueSky/FA/Eka's etc);
 - Optional: a rough sketch of the idea you want
- Be concise with your request;
- Be sure of what you want:
 - If the idea is settled, there is no going back once I start working;
- I don't make character references for others;
- Be patient;
- I can deny your request by any reason:
 - I could point on what to change;
 - Being insistent will get you nowhere;
