

1. Complete the following sentences with the correct quantifier. In some sentences, more than one answer is possible. Try to list all of the possible answers.

With Count Nouns Only	With Uncount Nouns Only	With Both Count and Uncount Nouns
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (not) many people • a few parties • too few chairs • fewer drinks • several tables 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (not) much fun • a little time • very little experience • less 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • some money • some people • (not) any juice • (not) any glasses • more / most water • more / most cigarettes • all / no information • all / no stores • enough food • enough forks

With Singular Count Nouns Only	With Plural Count Nouns Only
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • each person • every time • either choice • neither place 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • both students

1. How _____ the ornaments were handmade?
many of
2. I didn't like _____ the two landmarks we visited over the weekend.
3. _____ my parents came to the festivities.
4. _____ the crops were damaged in the storm.
5. There are _____ decorations on store windows in December.
6. _____ the students in class have fulfilled the teacher's expectations.
7. We tried to distribute the ads outside, but not _____ people wanted to take them.
8. _____ of my two cousins graduated high school. They both flunked out.
9. Which would you prefer, coffee or tea?"
"Actually, I'm fine with _____."
10. _____ my two suggestions are obligatory. You can do whatever you want.
11. "Could I borrow some money?"
"Actually, I don't have _____."
12. The boy actually ate _____ his vegetables!

2. Correct the mistakes in the following sentences. There are mistakes in each sentence in the quantifiers and sometimes in the subject-verb agreement. It may be possible to write more than one correct sentence by using different quantifiers.

1. All of people would gripe if they had to work longer hours.

All people would gripe if they had to work longer hours.

All of the people would gripe if they had to work longer hours.

(Every one of the people would gripe if they had to work longer hours.)

2. I think either of those ideas sounds better.

3. The farmer had very little livestock to sell.

4. Every declarations by the government was met with anger.

5. These days, fewer commercials is(are) very interesting.

6. I don't think you have enough of sympathy to help me with my problem.

7. "Do you have any time to help?"

"I'm sorry, I have none."

8. "Would you prefer to sit in the front of the taxi or the back?"

"Both places are okay for me."

Either place is okay with me.

9. We spent a great deal of time on the decorations, but much many of the things we made looked crappy. (crappy = slang, not normally seen in writing)

10. How many of your belongings have sentimental value?

11. You can talk to both John or Paul.
either

12. "Who did you see this morning?"
"I saw every."
I saw everyone.
I saw all of the people.