The Ideal Version of Yourself 3-6 Months From Now

My Power Phrases (2-3)

- I am in control of my brain. Not the other way around.
 - All I need to do is just control myself in the current moment to do what I must, that is everything I'm wishing for.
 - It's hard, but that is how I become a more powerful person.

My Core Values (2-3)

- Speed. I will do everything as quickly and optimally as possible. Not wasting a single second of time. I have perfect management and am always doing things that move the needle. I quickly switch from one task to the next, doing things that take others a week in a single day.
- Indomitable. No matter what is thrown at me. I continue to move forward without fear. Any challenge that comes at me I just smile at and welcome to become even stronger. No matter what comes at me I aikido it into more power and strength. Any challenge that comes at me I see as a way to grow stronger.
- I constantly seek ways to relentlessly push myself. I'm never in my comfort zone and constantly biting more than I can chew. Only to figure out a way to rise up to the challenge and beat it. Smiling every time I become more powerful in the process.

My Daily Non-Negotiables (2-3)

- If I have to get to a place. I will not walk, but run to it.
- No eating before 6pm.
- NO YOUTUBE ON MY PHONE NO MATTER WHAT. No excuse, even if someone asks me to pull up a video on YT I will refuse.

My Goals Achieved

- Finding my first winning product.

After testing countless products and constantly reviewing why previous products failed. I boot up my PC to see the results of another product test... A ROAS of 3.5! The CPC is just $0.53, and the profit gained just from $100 spent is off the charts! The moment clicked for me, I understood why this product was successful. My heart races as I quickly begin to optimize my website for conversion rate, get a better creative and begin scaling into success...

- Making $10K

It's been weeks since I've found my winning product. I have my winning creative, my website looks perfect, I've added a few products. Countless sleepless nights to ensure that there is no way this can fail. I can finally apply for advanced! I can finally afford to quit the job which I have hated for so long. Times are changing... and it's all because I took my future into my own hands.

- Starting a company

I've legally registered a company. I have staff to help me do all the work. I'm aiming to hit that 7 figure goal by the end of the year. I'm starting multiple other stores and testing all sorts of products, most of them with pretty good results. I'm really starting to master this game.

My Rewards Earned

- I can finally wear clothing that I always wanted to wear. At home, I put on a “Resist the slave mind” shirt, ready to try and move my business forward whilst looking and feeling like a G. I love identity items, things that confirm that I am becoming the man I want to be. And after countless hours put into my business. I am finally seeing the transformation that is not only on the inside, but on the outside too.
- I woke up in the best shape of my life. I feel the energy seeping into me as I wake up, ready to conquer another day. My body looks like one of a Greek god, and I finally begin to see the fruits of my labor.
- I don't have to worry about health or money. I can just live healthy and eat whatever food I want. I help my parents live a healthy lifestyle with me as we can all afford great quality food and supplements.

My Appearance And How Others Perceive Him

- I go about my day in some challenging attire. Wearing a t-shirt saying “Fortune favors the prepared mind” today. I’m confident in myself and don’t care how I look, which others can sense. When I am doing business. I wear a tailored suit, which compliments my aesthetic physique.
- My hair is cut, my face is shaved, my teeth are nice and white as I kindly smile. You can see how much dedication has been put into becoming the best person I could be.

- I carry an air of importance in every movement. Serious but not afraid to make someone laugh every now and then. I don't like to waste my own or other's time.

My Day In The Life Stories.

- I wake up early... Even when I don't feel like it I get up. I remind myself it's another beautiful day as I look at the kind of person I have become. I quickly remind myself of what I value and begin my morning routine. Take Fireblood, brush teeth and run straight to the gym without listening to any music... No time wasted. I hit my daily workout and run back home, ready to make massive progress on my business.
- I understand exactly what I must do. But first, I say good morning to all my brothers fighting alongside me. I check that nothing has been set on fire, then I begin going about my daily chores. Searching for potential winning products, learning a bit more about marketing, testing new products, reviewing the results, creating ads. I have done so much that I start running out of things to do. No problem, it's time to sharpen my skills.
- After a productive morning and afternoon, I start looking for ways to optimize my current system and the way I go about things. I talk with my brothers in the chat about the best way to qualify a product for testing as I try to think of new ways to predict whether a product will work or not. Afterwards, I search for potential winning products to test, the pool of products never ends, so there is always work to do there. I find a few good potentials and add them to my massive list. Which I go over and qualify whether products are worth testing or not.
- As the sun begins to set, I finally have some food. Enjoying the meal while thinking about today's progress. Another day easily conquered, another day that I move towards my goals of finding a winning product... I sit next to my family and we talk while eating. Afterwards. I help out some people in TRW before going to sleep, ready to reset the day and conquer tomorrow.
