UCI Libraries | OC & SEAA Center

OH#
-----	--

Notes about this form: Oral history involves interviewing individuals on a voluntary basis with the clear intention of creating a historical document that will be preserved as legacy for future scholarship and community memory. This copyright does not grant exclusive rights to this repository; each of the parties to the interview has the right to use their own works as they see fit.

Narrator-Interviewer Agreement

In consideration of the	e recording and prese	rvation of my vide	o/oral history by the UC I	rvine Libraries, I (the narrator),		, hereby g	rant, assign, and transfer to	o the University of California rty rights unless restricted as f the recording(s) and/or tra hs taken for the interview, or he interview. This includes
	•	-		o for access by that medium,
_	-			c formats, and permission to _	•	,	answer any or all questions
-			any time. I (the narrator) re
•	-	•	,	Regents and its successor
_	= : :	anscription(s) to any	other libraries and educat	ional institutions for scholarly and educational uses a	na purposes.
Similarly and for the s	ame considerations n	oted above, I (the	interviewer), egents (hereafter UC Rege	nts) and its Successor the rights, including all litera	ary and property rights ι	unless restricted as	noted below, to publish, du	iplicate, or otherwise use and dispose of the recording	g(s) and/or transcribed i	nterview(s) recorde	d on	, 20 and any videotaped footage and	still photographs taken	for the interview, o	r narrator's personal photog	graphs or other objects the print and in electronic form, such as placement on the	ne Internet/Web for acc	ess by that medium	, the right to rebroadcast th	ne interview or portions thereof on the Internet a	and in other electronic for	ormats, and permis	sion to transfer the intervie	w to future technological mediums. I (the co-narr	ator) reserve the right to	o not answer any or	all questions asked, and I	can request that the recording device be turn	ned off at any time. I (the	e co-narrator) reser	ve the right to publish this	interview in part or in its or the right to distribute the recording(s) and/or tran	scription(s) to any other	r libraries and educ	ational institutions for scho	arly and educational uses and purposes.
Likewise, I (representa	ative of the UC Repres	sentative).		hereby agree to to accepted professional s
	-		nors) with access to the tag
Signature of Narrator:			Date:
Narrator's address:	(Street or P.O. Box)	(City)	(Stata)	(7in anda)
	(Street of P.O. Box)	(City)	(State)	(Zip code)
Narrator's phone number	er:	Narrator's em	ail address:
Signature of Interview	er:		Date:
Interviewer's address:
iliterviewer 5 audress.	(Street or P.O. Box)	(City)	(State)	(Zip code)
	,	, , ,	,	,
Interviewer's phone nur	nber:	Interviewe	er's email address:
Signature of UC Repre	esentative:		Date:	