

CareerSculpt Accessibility Statement

CareerSculpt is committed to ensuring our website is accessible to as many people as possible, regardless of ability, technology or access needs.

Our Commitment

We aim to ensure our website is:

- Clear and easy to navigate
- Compatible with assistive technologies, including screen readers
- Accessible across different devices and modern browsers
- Written in clear, plain English

Our website is built using Google Sites, which incorporates built-in accessibility features and aligns with recognised accessibility standards, including Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 where applicable.

Ongoing Improvements

We are committed to continuous improvement and regularly review our content to:

- Maintain logical structure and clear headings
- Improve readability and usability
- Ensure accessibility considerations are embedded in new content

Known Limitations

While we strive to ensure accessibility across all areas of the website, some content may not yet fully meet accessibility standards. We welcome feedback and will take reasonable steps to address identified issues.

Contact Us

If you experience difficulty accessing any part of this website or require information in an alternative format, please contact:
