

Marcia Wieder - Masterful Manifestation

Module 1: Open & Ignite Your Heart

Infuse Your Dreams with Divine Love* (Recorded on February 19, 2014)

The most important first step in becoming a masterful manifestor is to open and ignite your heart, which links your deeper purpose with your creative power. It's more magnetic for others to participate when they can feel your genuine passion – and it also helps call forth more guidance and support. In this module you'll:

- Focus on discovering who you really are and what's meaningful to you right now – letting go of your past ideas and understandings to expand into a new possibility
- Practice linking your heart with your soul, and expressing that integration when you share your vision with others
- Shift your beliefs so that you can see the world anew and perceive what's really possible
- See how essence has orchestrated every aspect of your life, so that you can awaken to your true destiny
- Open your heart to compassion, unconditional love, healing presence and the calm within any chaos, in order to develop a trusted presence

Module 2: Access Mastery

Open to Higher Wisdom Through Soul Integrity* (Recorded on February 26, 2014)

A masterful manifestor is fully integrated with all of their life force, wisdom and power, which requires getting into integrity with our souls. Our souls are not just a vague concept, but include a set of intentions, plans, and capacities that are designed to help us fulfill our higher purpose. When we access mastery by getting into integrity with our souls, we access a higher wisdom to guide our works' development. In this module, you will:

- Open the channel to your own higher wisdom
- Develop a profound tool for discernment in order to purge away anything that's not love and in alignment with your heart, soul and destiny
- Clean your emotional and physical house to allow for space to create a bigger more compelling vision for yourself and the world
- Learn to develop a quality of caring that provides more capacity for creating, and changes everything

- Understand how to value your gifts more, and charge your worth, as you expand your relationship with prosperity consciousness

Module 3: Reclaim Your Shadow

Transform Inner Obstacles (Recorded on March 12, 2014)

As we grow, we learn to push aspects of ourselves into the shadows, which are actually the very things we need to manifest powerfully. The next step in your journey of masterful manifestation requires accessing the “light” in your shadow, turning inner obstacles and resistance into a powerful team for creation. In this module, you’ll:

- Discern the real power and potential in parts of yourself that you once thought were barriers
- Learn the single most powerful tool that will help you eliminate blame – both of yourself and in relationships
- See yourself through a new lens that will allow you to stop judging, as well as reclaim juice, power and focus as you access what was always yours but was lost or forgotten
- Face your fears and recognize what stops you as you shift your relationship with your inner critic, or anything else that might sabotage your dreams
- Understand how judging ourselves and others perpetuates a fatal flaw that keeps us from our birthright as creators

Module 4: Harness Your Voice

Speak Your Vision with Clarity, Conviction & Power (Recorded on March 19, 2014)

Your creative project or dream cannot manifest without you being able to speak it powerfully in a way that people are excited, enrolled and eager to participate as allies, customers or more. This is a skill that requires inner work to access the full spectrum of your voice and link it with the soul integrity and heart you’ve already established. In this module, you’ll:

- Learn to open your throat energetically to speak with greater truth, clarity and conviction
- Develop the skill of deeper listening to create a more resonant and trustworthy voice – one in which people hear the authentic you
- Understand the 3 keys to expressing yourself as a visionary who people will trust and join
- Access tools and skills to help you speak to anyone, anytime about your dreams, projects and ideas in a way that will inspire them to help or hire you

Module 5: Mobilize Your Community

Enroll Dream-mates with Ease (Recorded on March 26, 2014)

Manifesting your dream, vision or project is almost never a solitary affair! We need friends, allies, advisors, team members, customers, investors – all of whom need clear invitations they can say “yes” to participating in. In this module, you will:

- Learn to overcome your fears and master the skill of enrollment – the #1 skill for becoming a master of manifestation
- Receive a four-step left-brain process for fast and profound results, as well as a four-step right- brain process that has been proven to get people and organizations to join you
- Understand how to use the power of belonging and vulnerability to gain support
- Identify easy “yeses” that allow people to step into the “yes” and build toward greater levels of commitment
- Discover a simple practice for turning a “no” into a “YES” – so you can build the best possible support system and accomplish more with greater ease

Module 6: Replenish Your Well

Daily Practices That Recharge Your Power to Create (Recorded on April 9, 2014)

Every day you are working on creating your project, you can either drain energy and enthusiasm or replenish it. In the final step of Masterful Manifestation, you’ll learn to be exquisitely attuned to what your body, mind, heart and soul need to keep your passion flowing, your excitement fresh, and your body recharged and delighted. This is absolutely required for the long-haul creative process. In this final module you’ll:

- Learn how to design and create simple practices for profound and lasting change
- Harness the power of rituals to reconnect you with your Source, and link your heart and soul into your action steps
- Develop your ability to do less and have more – the ultimate skill of the master manifestor! (Marcia was featured on Oprah with her book, Doing Less and Having More)
- Design your own unique curriculum for living an inspiring life filled with joy, love and abundance
- Hear how to work less, make more money and have vital energy for what matters to you most
