

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDS SCHOOL —elementary— 小学

你 好, Hola, Hello

Wendy Yu

Wendy Yu originally came from Shanghai, where she spent three years as a Lead Teacher in a Kindergarten. She relocated to Washington State in 2018, pursuing a Master's degree in Language, Literacy, and Technology at Washington State University.

In 2021, Wendy earned another Master's degree and Teacher Certificate from the University of Washington through the Elementary Teacher Education Program. Before the 24-25 school year, she taught Kindergarten at IFS for three years. Wendy is dedicated to creating an inclusive and responsive learning environment, and she looks forward to collaborating with other IFS teachers in this endeavor.

Starting this year, Wendy Yu has transitioned into an administrative role as the Assistant Head of Teaching, Learning, and Curriculum at IFS. In this capacity, she is committed to collaborating closely with teachers to further develop and refine the curriculum, ensuring it meets the diverse needs of students. Wendy also plays a key role in overseeing teachers' professional development, fostering a culture of continuous learning and growth within the school. Her passion for education and her dedication to creating a supportive, inclusive environment for both teachers and students drive her efforts in this new role.

Outside of her professional life at IFS, Wendy enjoys calligraphy, music, and movies. She is an avid traveler, photographer, and food enthusiast, always eager to explore and embrace new cultures.