Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to apply for the Finance Project Manager position at Siemens Energy in Cairo. With over 20 years of experience spanning pharmaceuticals, construction, finance, healthcare, and technology, I bring a unique blend of financial control expertise, supply chain leadership, ERP implementation, and strategic business innovation that aligns directly with your mission of driving excellence in energy solutions

Throughout my career, I have held progressive roles in finance, operations, and innovation — from managing ERP rollouts and optimizing supply chain flows at Macro Group Pharmaceuticals, to leading strategic business innovation and product launches for Feel Good Canada and Evidence Proven Italy. My experience also includes financial and operational leadership in hospitals, contracting, and food manufacturing sectors, where I consistently ensured compliance, improved processes, and strengthened financial performance.

In my most recent role as Business Innovation Director, I successfully

* Directed innovation strategies that led to the launch of multiple pharmaceutical and cosmetic products

Oversaw ERP implementation (Next ERP - Open * .Source) to enhance financial transparency and efficiency

* Developed and optimized supply chain processes that accelerated innovation outcomes and ensured regulatory compliance
