

Courses Offered by the Social Studies Department (2025-2026)

All Social Studies Courses have an Honors option

Full Year Required Courses

World Cultures & Civilization (9th Grade)

U.S. History (Sophomores)

First Semester Electives (Juniors/Seniors)

The Classical World: Rome - Kendall

International Issues - Car/Magee

The New Nation: 19th Century US History - Wilder

The Presidency and American Politics - Davies

Psychology - Brain, Mind, & Behavior -Fisher/Wild/Bodenrader

Revolutions: 1789 to the present - Glazer

Intro to Sociology - Gauthier

Twice Told Tales (Juniors) - Rivera

Second Semester Electives (Juniors/Seniors)

Through it all: The Black Experience in America - Wise

Constitutional Law - Fox

Current Affairs (Seniors only) - Davies

Intro to Economics - Lane/Magee

Human Geography: Place, Power & Human Identity - Winkler

Psychology - Normal & Abnormal Behavior - Wilder/Bodenrader

Russia: Past, Present & Future - Carr

Senior Psychology (Seniors only) - Bodenrader/Rivera

World Religions - McCabe

The Program of Studies can be viewed at: Program of Studies

Courses Offered by the English Department (2025-2026)

Full Year Required Courses

9th Grade English

Sophomore English

First Semester Juniors

Junior English

Twice Told Tales

Second Semester Juniors

Writing Workshop

Rhetoric and Advanced Language (Honors)

First Semester Electives Seniors

Senior English

Second Semester Electives Seniors

World Literature

Creative Writing

Visions of the Future

- Juniors taking Rhetoric are strongly encouraged to take the AP Language & Composition exam.
- Seniors taking Honors English are strongly encouraged to take the AP Literature exam.
- Supports are available through the department to students interested in taking AP exam*

The Program of Studies can be viewed at: Program of Studies