

About Noor Kids

Summary:

Noor Kids is a monthly Akhlaq Building Program designed at Harvard University to inspire Muslim children to learn and love Islam. Check out a free sample at NoorKids.com

Our Unique Approach

After conducting research related to early childhood education at Harvard, Bekerley, and San Francisco State University, Noor Kids developed an evidence-based approach to build confidence in the religious identity of young Muslim. This unique approach, focusing on storytelling, role models, critical thinking, and parent integration is embedded into each of the Noor Kids products and services.

Our Products and Services

Noor Kids is currently produces the following products and services:

- Noor Kids Adventure Membership: This is a monthly, subscription-based children's book series in which each month families receive a new book delivered to their home. This is intended for children ages 4-to-9.
- Noor Kids Baby Book Bundle: This is a three book bundle for children ages 0-3 that seeks to build a genuine relationship between children and their Creator. This bundle includes a backpack and a superhero cape.
- Storytime Khutba for Kids: This is an online series, in which we provide weekly, live programs for children ages 5-14. Children from around the world participate through our mobile application.
- In-person Enrichment Programs: Executive Director, Amin G. Aaser, travels across the country to conduct in-person enrichment programs for children, youth, parents, and teachers.
