

Agreement to Join San Jose Mid-Week Hikers Group

Our organizers do not have any professional training and on hikes may be exploring the trails with the group for the first time. Our leaders are not responsible for providing first aid, CPR or any rescue action.

- If you RSVP yes, please change your RSVP if you will not be able to attend. If you respond "YES" and do not show up you will be removed after the 2nd "NO SHOW"
- Do not show up and attend a hike if you are not on the list of Attendees. If you do so, it may be treated equivalent to a "NO SHOW" and will eventually result in removal from the group.
- The hike will begin at the posted time. Try to get there at least 15 or more minutes before the posted time.
- If you want to turn back at any time or take a different route, let the Organizer know so we do not wait/look for you.
- Please make sure your profile name shows your first name or nickname and preferably a last initial to allow hike leaders to verify those showing up are actually on the Attendee list. We also recommend a photo of your face (even a distant photo helps).
- San Jose Mid-Week Hikers Meetup Group and organizers are no way responsible for verifying or certifying the reliability, driving ability or insurance status of drivers or participants. Or for any damages or injuries resulting from carpooling to an event, even in cases where the leader has suggested carpooling.
- Do not attend hikes if you are suffering a cold, flu, COVID or other disease that could potentially be contagious or if you have a fever the day of the hike.

Acknowledgment of Member Responsibility, Express Assumption of Risk, and Release of Liability
