

To: Editorial Board of ASEAN Journal of Disaster Health Management

The pledge for the paper submission

All authors are to abide by the following terms regarding submission of the papers to the ASEAN Journal of Disaster Health Management:

1. Avoid Duplicate publication

The submitted paper has not yet been published in or is not being contributed to other journals (including commercial journals). The figure(s) or table used in the past or different journals has been obtained permission for reprinting.

2. Ethical clearance

Please tick off in the box you apply to:

- The submitted paper has passed the ethical approval to prove not against ethical principles on the Declarations of Helsinki. *Required to attach the ethical approval certificate.
- The submitted paper is not required to obtain ethical clearance, with no interventions to humans or animals.

3. Protection of personal information

The submitted paper complies with protecting the personal information or anonymization, and/or has obtained consent from the person/family/group who contributes to the paper for using the specific information.

4. Conflict of Interest

The authors disclose conflicts of interest without misrepresentation.

< Title of the paper >

< Authors signature > * corresponding author

<input type="radio"/> 1.	2.
3.	4.
5.	6.