

IRISH
INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

Excellence

- Our school recognises as areas of excellence, after analyzing the data and reflecting as a team:
- Its great educational community, with a staff committed to the mission, teaming up with parents, for the integral formation of each student.
- Improvement of English according to academic indicators, in the middle and high school grades.
- The timely intervention and follow-up of students with special needs, according to the RCSA manual as well as with the multidisciplinary team and parents, by the area of psychopedagogy, celebrating that each student learns at his or her own time and pace, achieving curricular adaptations and personalized evaluations, according to the plan of each student.
- Environments of healthy coexistence, where the student can express themselves, live together and make good classmates and friends. The healthy coexistence program, Sumando, in its implementation stage, is advancing as a program of accompanying, listening, empowering, launching campaigns and adding teachers and parents.
- The implementation of communication platforms with parents and teachers, to follow up on the spaces for listening and timely attention. As well as the coordination team and managers. Where the parent is attended, listened to and their opinion heard in favor of the healthy integral development of the student, of their child.
