

Week # 42

Monday, October 13th

♀♂♂ VENUS TRINE URANUS

October 13, 2025, 12:15pm – October 15, 2025, 2:02am

We'll be itching to switch things up and make a change to our ordinary routines today. You'll be looking to bring some spunk into your day, and take a risk or explore something that interests you, piques your fancy, or brings the unusual into your life. This is a great day to focus on entertainment, fun, pleasure, or exploring the extraordinary or out of the ordinary. Be open to new excitements and insights that come today connected to your income, and new ways of earning money, creating sellable products, or new ways to sell and increase your cash flow.

Waning Gibbous in Cancer ends at 11:11 am PDT

Last Quarter in Cancer: Set boundaries, prioritize self-care, and conserve energy to protect your well-being and avoid burnout

Last Quarter in Cancer begins at 11:12 am PDT

- Excellent creative energy for channelling, journaling, and artistry
- Feminine spiritual practices and rituals for fertile creativity
- Set and maintain boundaries even if it might challenge others to care for themselves when they're used to depending on you (or vice versa)
- Create content and offerings that come from a space of caring for your clients/audience by tuning into their deeper needs
- Last Quarter: Active energy for completing tasks and assessing where you are in your current project plan

If you're high energy/in a work mood: When it comes to Last Quarter in Cancer, the thing we need to wrap up is where we're putting our energy emotionally and otherwise. As the energy of this moon diminishes over time, so will your energy and this could put into perspective that we don't have enough for everyone or everything. If others are wanting more of us right now than we can give, our boundaries could be tested right now.

If we ignore our own needs and try to do it all because we haven't established healthy boundaries, we will likely feel drained and resentful if we're not careful. If others are asking for our help, we need to be aware of whether we're doing so at the expense of our well being. Take a step back and care for yourself, even if it might be uncomfortable.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: If working with clients doesn't feel aligned or you're wanting to rest, this is a great moon to simply take time to appreciate yourself fully for the skills you have and how you help others with your work. Pull out all the testimonials you've been given and reminisce on the positive impact you've made in their lives. Consciously become more open to receiving positive reviews on your work by giving yourself your own testimonial from the perspective of your most aligned ideal client. If you're feeling completely drained and empty right now, do whatever you can to simply replenish your cup - put your need for rest first and be willing to protect that with boundaries if necessary.

Social Media & Clients:

- Focus on family, your self-care and encourage your audience to remind themselves of the life-work balance
- 1:1 services and coaching calls are good for exploring emotions
- Whatever you learn through emotional processing can be shared through a vulnerability in your posts
- Share rituals and techniques for how you navigate strong and bewildering emotions
- Create a space of intimacy with your audience by creating posts that ask them about their personal lives and self-care routines

Moon Boosts: No boosts this phase.

♀♂ ♀ VENUS TRINE PLUTO

October 13, 2025, 9:24pm – October 15, 2025, 12:05pm

This can be a spicy, intimate, and passionate transit for our intimate relationships, whether for finding someone new or embracing a new level of passion with our current partner. There can be openness and excitement here to take things deeper and explore more aspects of our sexuality.

We may feel more protective and passionate about those in our circle both intimately and personally. Financially this can be a prosperous window for investments and larger purchases, and taking the time to dive into this and research it can help you build your long-term wealth at this time.

There can be an almost obsessive quality at work during this transit, in terms of the darker aspects of ourselves, sex, and the more mysterious parts of life. This can be a very transformative period if you allow yourself to explore these desires.

Void Moon

Begins: October 13, 2025, 10:04 pm PDT

Please see Moonsight Digital Calendar for description.

♀ ♀ VENUS IN LIBRA

October 13, 2025, 2:19pm – November 6, 2025, 2:39pm

This transit highlights our desire for balance in love, for things to feel fair, light, and shared. If your relationship has been feeling imbalanced where one partner is taking on more than their share of responsibilities or not taking ownership of their own emotions, or needs, then this can come up to be addressed now. We will be seeking peace, beauty, and calmness in our relationships and environments during this transit.

♇ ♇ PLUTO IN AQUARIUS

October 13, 2025, 7:53pm – December 31, 2025, 10:59pm

October 13, 2025 - May 6, 2026
01°22' - 05°30'

Pluto will be in Aquarius from:
March 23, 2023 - June 11, 2023
January 20, 2024 - September 1, 2024
November 19, 2024 - March 8, 2043.

The last time that Pluto was in Aquarius, outside of dipping its toes in for a few short months in 2023, and off and on last year, was between 1777 and 1798, and the last time it was at the critical point of 0 degrees Aquarius, outside of March 2023, and most recently January - September of last year, was 246 years ago. This is a profound transit that outside of a short retrograde back into Capricorn that just recently occurred between September 1 - November 19, 2024, will carry us forward into 2044. Pluto carves out generations and what the structure and transformation of those generations will focus on. Between now and the next 20 years we will see significant changes in our world, from business to agriculture, to government, technology, and belief systems. Pluto in a chart shows our power, often hidden, and in some cases misdirected. It also shows our fears and the challenges we may face in gaining our true power.

Historically speaking if we go back to the last time that Pluto left Capricorn and entered Aquarius was the very formation of the United States. In 2022 the US began its first Pluto return, marking one cycle of an empire, the complete results of which we won't fully grasp for another couple of years.

At the birth of the United States, Pluto was at 27 degrees Capricorn (Rome's birth chart had Pluto at 26 degrees 47 Cancer - opposite the US, both marking the degrees of Empires) signifying a country that benefited from hard-won freedom, and the structures of a republic, but the costs were high, as Pluto edged its way out of Capricorn and into Aquarius we saw the formation of a country. At that time what became the US's power was its people, and its ideologies around advancement, capitalism (movement from Capricorn into Aquarius), and mass development of cities, communities, and eventually technology.

It marked the end of a traditional governmental era controlled by Britain and the beginning of an entirely new country. Pluto represents not only power but Big Government (often taking the form of Capitalism, Socialism, and Marxism), resources, and control. In this case, as it makes its second round of Aquarius since the birth of the United States we are witnessing the next power shift into people, and ideologies, in this case, human capital, and the governmental structure that will be forming around this newfound 'resource'. The beginnings of Technocracy, Plutocracy, and other structures that we may not understand the full ramifications of until much later.

But the old era isn't completely gone yet, Pluto will still make one last transit back into Capricorn between September and November of this year, before it finally crosses back into Aquarius. These transits will not only affect the US but the world as the structures of the US have been imparted to the world from the US Dollar, the markets, and the governmental power structures created through relationships with a multitude of countries. In that time I would expect to see the last of the old structures fall away and slowly be replaced by new technological advancements, and ideological bureaucracy structured through new infrastructures like blockchain, digital currency, credit systems, and other such tracking and counting mechanisms.

Ends: October 14, 2025, 3:46 am PDT

Please see Moonsight Digital Calendar for description.

Last Quarter in Leo: Embrace fiery passion, assess your joy in business, and align your efforts with what truly makes you happy

Last Quarter in Leo begins at 3:47 am PDT

Are You Having Fun Yet?

- Tap into who you really are and what makes you happy
- Get in touch with your inner child and have fun with creating beauty
- Activate the flame of your divine creativity for inspiration
- Access deep reserves of creative power by having fun and actively playing (games, with children, art expressions)
- Last Quarter: Active energy for completing tasks and assessing where you are in your current project plan

If you're in a high energy/work mood: When our emotions are backed by this fiery power, we might feel more ready to give generously, sell your value and be fully seen in the world. Though, the thing we want to ask ourselves amongst all of the efforts we make in our business is - are we truly happy? Is our business a joyful journey to the desires we want or do we feel like we're suffering every step of the way in hopes of reaching what we want? Maybe there are ways we are showing up in our business that aren't actually in alignment with what makes us happy and if so we might need to shift what we're doing and how we're doing it.

If you're in a low energy/self-care mood: Take this moon as a time to create quietly behind the scenes, especially if you're not wanting attention of any kind. Sometimes we just have to retreat away into a bubble where we focus on a project just for us. Where we have full creative freedom, room to move and a powerful vision to strive for.

Social Media & Clients:

- Share your personal story with your audience
- Have something coming up? Give your community and clients a 'sneak peek' or behind-the-scenes of what you're working on. Give them a snapshot, or short video, or even a walkthrough.
- Talk about it and how excited you are or even share your sign-up or opt-in page if you have a launch coming.
- Don't underestimate the power of gifts and support that you give at this time, Leo when sharing from a place of love, breeds loyalty, something that businesses that last are built on.

♂♂♂ MARS TRINE NORTH NODE

October 14, 2025, 10:41am – October 17, 2025, 2:44am

All systems go! When the planet of movement harmonizes with this karmic point, we may find ourselves drawn into situations and towards people who help us further our goals. This is a good time to pay attention to what and who shows up since they might hold a piece of the puzzle you've been putting together all this time. Lean into serendipitous meetings and listen to your intuition, especially if it helps you create clarity about what you're doing in this life and how your business plays a key role in your life purpose.

Note: All Nodal calculations and transits in the calendar are calculated for MEAN node not TRUE node.

Wednesday, October 15th

♂♂♂ JUPITER SQUARE CHIRON

October 15, 2025, 5:05am – November 4, 2025, 2:23am

You might feel like you're being pushed out of your comfort zone under the influence of this aspect, which could leave you vulnerable and pressured to grow. As it relates to business, your ethics could be challenged by others, or your choices about the direction of your work are shifting and needing to be refocused.

Take a moment to see your situation differently because Jupiter's power is available to us when we're willing to take on a higher perspective. Our ego could become inflamed, and we might be asked to admit fault, repair burned bridges, and take the high road instead of stooping to petty conflict. It may feel unjust, but the tradeoff is that when we choose healing over fighting, we invest our energy more wisely into things and people who pour back into us.

♂♂♂ SUN SQUARE JUPITER

October 15, 2025, 8:21pm – October 18, 2025, 12:57am

The best use of this transit is to discipline yourself to do something big and to see it through to its completion. Where we might struggle with this transit is if we expect big results without big efforts and if things are taking longer than you thought, your ego could feel a tad burned as a result. Not living up to one's own ideals can be painful and this aspect doesn't make that any easier to bear. The only thing we can do is keep moving forward and channel frustration into a 'nose to the grindstone' mentality.

Thursday, October 16th

☉ ♄ K SUN OPPOSITION CHIRON

October 16, 2025, 5:33pm – October 18, 2025, 3:45pm

When the ultra-confident Sun is positioned opposite the wounded healer, we need to be conscious of using others and their problems as a way to avoid addressing our own. There is a preoccupation with becoming a healer for others because we think we have it figured out by comparison to them. As a result, we might miss the golden opportunity present for us to focus on our own healing and our own flaws, bringing a deeper awareness of our inherent value and radiance. Doing so gives us a perspective of vulnerability and when we acknowledge our own personal shortcomings, we can find it easier to be compassionate and create intimacy with others.

Waning Crescent in Virgo: Wrap up tasks, streamline processes, and use Virgo's detail-oriented energy to organize, finalize, and prepare for the next phase

Waning Crescent Moon in Virgo begins at 11:06 am PDT

(combined with remaining last quarter energy)

- Explore ways to become more efficient and minimize energy outputs
- Organize your workspaces and tie up loose ends
- Improve any systems and structures for operating your business
- Utilize constructive criticism to help you grow
- Channel feelings of worry into productivity, nose to the grindstone

- Created batched content, complete tasks in bulk
- Focus on financial structures, marketing strategies, funnel systems, mapping out offerings, accounting, doing research, etc
- Waning Crescent: Low key, reflective and inward energy

If you're high energy/in a work mood: During a Waning Crescent in Virgo, the focus shifts to wrapping things up and preparing for new beginnings, making it an ideal time for business tasks that require precision and attention to detail. Virgo's organized and analytical nature pairs perfectly with the introspective energy of this moon phase, encouraging you to clear out what's no longer serving your business and streamline your processes. This is the perfect moment to organize your digital workspace—clean up your inbox, declutter your desktop, and organize files for easy access. It's also an excellent time to review and edit website content, ensuring all your copy is polished and error-free.

Since this phase is all about completion, use the energy to tie up loose ends, finalize ongoing projects, or send out any follow-up emails that have been delayed. You might focus on wrapping up outstanding client work, finalizing contracts, or getting your finances in order by reviewing your budget, bookkeeping, and expenses. Virgo's practical influence also makes this a great time to assess the effectiveness of your current strategies, both in terms of content creation and marketing. Spend time analyzing data from past campaigns to identify areas for improvement and prepare a more efficient approach for the next lunar cycle.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood, this moon can help you perform cord-cutting to remove unhealthy connections and healing inner work to self-soothe and forgive while learning lessons. Attending to your bodily needs in a gentle way will amplify any healing done during this time. The more we can firmly escort draining situations out of our lives, the better able we will be to focus on our long-term goals.

Social Media:

- Nothing brings Virgo more pleasure than system-gasms.
- Inspirational how-tos, details, data, plans, blueprints, templates, step-by-steps, and organizational systems.
- Systemize your products, offers, content, or make it step by step. Create and share content that walks your people through a process.
- In an email sequence, break down their biggest questions or host a live stream, boot camp, or challenge, to help them channel their get-shit-done energy efficiently and in a way where they start to see results.

Moon Boosts:

10/16 square Uranus

10/17 sextile Mercury

10/17 sextile Mars

10/18 sextile Jupiter
10/18 oppose Saturn

☿ ♊ MERCURY TRINE NORTH NODE

October 16, 2025, 11:29pm – October 18, 2025, 9:51am

There is a conscious knowing with this transit that you are on the right path, talking to the right people, doing the right things, and on your way to even more greatness. Your ideas feel like they're flowing and when you do encounter hiccups, you're able to think through the details without letting difficulties overcome you.

The power of your mind and voice is activated and you're more able to speak clearly about who you are, what it is you do, and how you do it with excellence. More than that, there is a divine purpose behind your ideas and plans right now, so if you get downloads about what to do, listen to their message.

Note: All Nodal calculations and transits in the calendar are calculated for MEAN node not TRUE node.

Friday, October 17th

Waning Crescent in Virgo- All Day

Saturday, October 18th

☿ ♂ MERCURY CONJUNCT MARS

October 18, 2025, 8:54am – October 21, 2025, 5:13pm

Whenever we have two planets conjunct each other, their energies merge and they act as one. In this case, Mercury rules our mind/communication/thinking and perspectives, and Mars rules our motivation/ego/survival and action.

The positive actions of this transit are that we can accomplish quite a bit as our minds and our actions will be aligned and act as one unit. We will have an oversupply of mental and intellectual energy, the challenge comes in with how to use it.

Because our minds will be operating at warp speed, there will be impatience and irritability that can accompany this transit. Everything can seem urgent, and it can feel difficult to decipher what is important, what is you, what is someone else, what is real, what is worth acting on, and so on.

We may be feeling more defensive or feel we need to verbally defend our actions/position/integrity with this transit. This can lead to arguments and battles, some necessary others not. You'll want to make sure that you are clear on what your values and boundaries are, and what we are being triggered by that may or may not be 'real'. Pick your battles wisely. Make sure you think before you act.

This can be a good time to channel our competitive energy into something that propels us forward, and also to possibly enact some necessary boundaries in our lives. Whatever actions you take on ideas today especially if channeled towards your own personal excitements and passions can fair really well for you.

Waning Crescent in Virgo ends at 2:09 pm PDT

Void Moon

Saturday, October 18 · 2:10 – 9:01 pm PDT

Please see Moonsight Digital Calendar for description.

Waning Crescent in Libra: Evaluate and make adjustments to your work-life balance so that you're not overextending

Waning Crescent in Libra at 9:02 pm PDT

- Create a dialogue with others to learn what perspectives you've lacked
- Let others help you and be willing to ask for help
- Write down ideas freely, especially any that come up in brainstorm sessions with other people
- Focus training on coaching skills, community building, networking
- Excellent time for interviews, collaborations and work with others
- Waning Crescent: Low key, reflective and inward energy

If you're in a high energy/work mood: Libra's focus on balance encourages you to evaluate your work-life alignment. Assess whether there are areas where you may be overextended or, conversely, under-investing your time. Make adjustments to ensure a balanced approach moving forward, setting healthy boundaries if necessary. For solo entrepreneurs, this might mean taking a step back to recharge; for those working with a team, it might mean encouraging a more balanced workload for everyone.

If you're low energy: Lean on your trusted friendships, family and partners if you're needing a recharge from burnout right now. Others may have ideas of how to help you, or just be present and give gentle encouragement when you're feeling stuck in a rut. This moon reminds us of how important our emotional relationships are for refilling our cups.

Social Media & Clients:

- Use this period to focus on your brand visuals, strategy, and storytelling process. This moon favours any focus on creating polished, well-lit and high-quality lifestyle-oriented content, feeds and profiles.
- If you are selling your product or service, focus on the after, what is their happily ever after? How can you tell/demonstrate this story through your marketing?
- How does your business help your audience live their dream life? How does it help them become or be seen as the person they want to be?
- How does your imagery tell a story? Where does your ideal client fall in that story and how can you elevate them to the Hero, with you and your business in the supportive role?
- This is also a great time for online collaborations, virtual summits, IG Giveaways, etc.
- Focus on connecting with other experts in your field through interviews, professional spotlights and collaborations
- Client calls that are intended to be brainstorming sessions can produce fresh new ideas
