[MORE INFORMATION]

Nicole is running to better fund our public schools and to defeat Tricia Cotham, the former Democrat who switched parties and single-handedly overturned abortion access in this state. The Republicans rewarded her by changing her district to save her from getting voted out of office. Nicole is running to fight for women's reproductive freedom, fully funded public schools, and a strong local economy.

Woodson Bradley is your Democratic candidate for State Senate. Woodson is passionate about helping women, children, and families impacted by domestic violence and sexual assault because of her own experiences

Nicole and Woodson are running to fight for women's reproductive freedom, fully funded public schools, and a strong local economy.
