

8:00 am to 8:45 am	Symposium Check-in and Coffee with Sponsors
8:45 am to 9:00 am	Welcome Remarks from NWFAEP
9:00 am to 10:00 am	Session 1
Title	FWC's Role with Wildlife Best Management Practices as They Relate to Silviculture
Speaker(s)	Kristal Walsh, Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation
Title	Changing Large Wildfire Patterns in the Eastern United States Wildland-Urban Interface
Speaker(s)	Noah Weidig, University of Florida, School of Forest, Fisheries, and Geomatic Sciences
Title	TBD
Speaker(s)	Patt Imof, UES
10:00 am to 10:20 am	Break and Time with Sponsors
10:20 am – 11:30 am	Session 2
Title	Demonstration of Increased Habitat Benefits for Living Shorelines with Natural Capital Accounting
Speaker(s)	Don Blancher, Moffat & Nichol
Title	Lower Perdido Islands Restoration
Speaker(s)	Katie Baltzer, The Nature Conservancy and Kate Dawson, Moffatt & Nichol
Title	The Alabama Comprehensive Living Shorelines Monitoring Program: An Overview
Speaker(s)	Dr. Bret Webb, University of South Alabama, Civil, Coastal & Environmental Engineering
11:30 am to 1:00 pm	Lunch and Time with Sponsors
11:45 am to 12:45 pm	Student Hour – Poster Presentations in UWF Conference Center Lounge (Link to Abstracts)
1:00 pm to 2:45 pm	Session 3
Title	Understanding the Environmental Impact of Wastewater
Speaker(s)	Tyler Lee and Matt Hagler, Baskerville Donovan Engineering
Title	Science-Driven Policy: Protecting Orange County's Wetlands
Speaker(s)	Katie Bowes, Professional Wetland Scientist, Drummond Carpenter, PLLC
Title	"Oysters Then and Now" Panel
Speaker(s)	Panelists include Matt Posner with Perdido Bay Estuary Program, Chris Verline of Santa Rosa County, and Rob Olin, founder of Estuary Oysters in Spring Creek., moderated by Dr. Bret Webb
2:45 pm to 3:00 pm	Break and Time with Sponsors
3:00 pm to 4:25 pm	Session 4
Title	Rapid Removal of Powdered Activated Carbon in Wastewater Treatment Plant Using Cloth Media Filtration: A Pilot Study
Speaker(s)	Hafiz Ahmad, Florida State University-Panama City, Civil and Environmental Engineering
Title	Project 2:1 - A County's Commitment to Improve Water Quality in Santa Rosa Sound
Speaker(s)	Mike Fazio, Santa Rosa County Environmental Department
Title	"Navigating Successful ERP and Section 404 Applications" Panel
Speaker(s)	A panel of experts from SWCA Environmental Consultants and Moderated by David Crawley
4:25 pm to 4:30 pm	Closing Remarks and Raffle Winner(s) Announcements
4:30 pm	Transition to Social Hour (at UWF Conference Center Lounge)
4:30 pm to 5:00 pm	NWFAEP Special BoD Meeting (election of BoD Members; optional attendance for active members)
6:00 pm	Close of Symposium