Language checks	We have conducted a final language check and carefully proofread the manuscript. The text has been reviewed for clarity, grammar, and style to ensure it meets academic language standards.	All page number	-	-
Title	We have revised the title of our manuscript to follow the guidelines provided. It is now written in sentence case, with only the first word and proper nouns capitalized, and unnecessary capitalization has been removed. The revised title is: Local customary law: The contribution of Cuci Kampung tradition as counterforce to territorial stigmatization in Jambi, Indonesia	1	Title	1

Abstract	The abstract has been revised according to the guidelines and is written as a single paragraph without subheadings or references. The total word count is under 300 words.	1	Abstract	4-23
Main text	The main body of the manuscript has been structured according to the suggested format, including Introduction, Methods, Results (with subheadings), and Discussion, in accordance with the nature of our research.
Figure	All figures have been provided as high-resolution files, each uploaded separately as one figure per file, and are properly cited within the main body of the text.	14	Results and Discussion	293, 309
Reference	The references have been formatted using in-text parenthetical citations, in accordance with the journal's guidelines, and not as numbered references.	26	Reference	608
Tables: these may sit in the main article file and do not need to be uploaded separately.	I have already included the tables in the main article file and removed them from the separate system.	9 17	Method Results and Discussion	191 392
