

Hey [insert boss' name],

I'm really interested in attending the Product-Led Summit Seattle on 17- 18 June 2025 in Grand Hyatt Seattle. I would like to enquire if you'd be able to offer financial support for me to do so.

Product-Led Alliance's event, Product-Led Summit Seattle, is dedicated to supporting industry leading product leaders and teams through their business journey with the strategies, tactics, and methods needed to make an impact in our market.

This is not your typical event. In fact, it's more focused on breaking the everyday working cycle, connecting with like-minded professionals from around the world, and getting practical advice to be more successful in our own businesses moving forward.

Between the content presented in the 8 sessions, panels, and keynotes, I plan to strengthen my skills in [X], [Y], [Z], and from the research, I've done into the upcoming event, I think it will help with these goals of my current role at [company's name]:

- Goal #1:
- Goal #2:
- Goal #3:

Ran by [insert X, Y, Z top company names speaking at the event], plus more, sessions include:

- Session #1:
- Session #2:
- Session #3:

Lots of respected leaders within the field are talking about it, and this is what one had to say about last year's event:

"People can get together, learn from each other, network and identify new strategies, to simply help do our jobs" - Angelia McFarland, Dell EMC

I believe Product-Led Summit Seattle would equip [company name] with the quintessential knowledge to differentiate our services from our competitors, and given the payment plan options available to make the event financially viable, this would be a shrewd investment. As well as this, I'll be sure to submit a post-event report including an executive summary, major takeaways, tips, and pictures from the event.

I'd be delighted to discuss this opportunity with you in further detail. Let me know if there's anything else you need from me at this stage.

Thanks,

[Your name]
