

Suggested social media copy

Social Media Graphic - To use on Facebook / LinkedIn

Yorkshire and the Humber is home to some truly amazing educators: teachers who inspire, support, and make a lasting impact on the lives of their pupils every single day.

Do you know a teacher or a team who goes above and beyond in the classroom? Maybe it's a teacher who has boosted their student's confidence, or a team you admire for their dedication to their students.

Now's your chance to show them the impact they've had in the school community. Nominate them today and give them the recognition they deserve.

Enter the 2025 Pearson National Teaching Awards today: <https://bit.ly/3PWmhxY>

#TeachingHeroes

Social Media Graphic - To use on X

Teachers inspire and make a lasting difference every day. Know a teacher or team in Yorkshire and the Humber who goes above and beyond? Nominate them for the 2025 Pearson National Teaching Awards and show them the appreciation they deserve: <https://bit.ly/3PWmhxY> #TeachingHeroes

Video - To use on Facebook / LinkedIn

Meet last year's Teacher of the Year in a Primary School Gold winner Natalie Poornomansy, from Outwood Primary Academy Woodlands in Doncaster!

We know Yorkshire and the Humber is full of incredible educators like Natalie who make a real difference to the lives of their pupils.

This year, it could be your colleague in the spotlight. With 16 different categories, there are plenty of opportunities to celebrate your exceptional teaching community.

Nominate them in the 2025 Pearson National Teaching Awards today:
<https://bit.ly/3PWmhxY>

#TeachingHeroes

Video - To use on X

We know Yorkshire and the Humber is full of incredible educators like last year's Gold winner Natalie Poornomansy. Could this be your colleague in 2025? Nominate someone in the 2025 Pearson National Teaching Awards today:
<https://bit.ly/3PWmhxY#TeachingHeroes>