Palliative Care Week, Sunday 6th - Saturday 12th September:

Palliative Care Week is a campaign dedicated to raising public awareness and increasing understanding of palliative care and its benefits. Its primary audience includes those who could benefit from palliative care, health and social care professionals, the wider public, and communities across the island of Ireland. 2026 marks the 13th year of this important campaign. Since 2014, AIIHPC has proudly led and coordinated the annual campaign.

This year's theme, 'It's not what you think,' invites us to challenge perceptions and look at things differently. There are many ways to support the campaign and support us to raise awareness of palliative care. Palliative Care Week Resources: To support your involvement, there are a range of resources available, including booklets, posters, social media frames that you can share and post on social media

9th September - Irish Hospice Foundation 'Think Ahead', webinar, providing information and supports about future care planning, palliative care and bereavement resources for people living with life limiting illnesses and those caring for them.

10th September - Laura Lynn, Ireland's Children's Hospice Webinar, 'Practical Self-Care: Looking after Yourself while Caring for your Child', a webinar exploring simple, achievable ways to support your physical, emotional and mental wellbeing, helping you take small steps towards sustainable self-care.
