
Dear Sir/Ma'am,

I am writing to you in regard to my Husband Mr. Elliot Springer, who has applied for a job at the Department of Justice, Delaware.

I have known him for a good chunk of his life, and though my spousal connection might make me look slightly biased, I still feel that I am a suitable enough judge of character to be considered a fair reference.

Elliot is a person with a good moral character who comes from a strong family. Our family has always believed in hard work, integrity, and goodwill toward others and our country. Elliot has retained all those beliefs. He knows what it means to do an honest day's work, and also recognizes the value of his obligations towards our country and the justice your department tries to do with all the citizens.

Regards
