Formative Assessment: Dawes Act

Directions: The introduction to the Dawes Act states that it was enacted in response to Helen Hunt Jackson's A Century of Dishonor as well as other critics' work. Students are to take a position regarding the extent to which this act mollified (appease the anger or anxiety of (someone).) those critics, or defend it using evidence from the Dawes Act and the Helen Hunt Jackson excerpt from the previous lesson.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There is no text or other markings on the paper.
