

inquin is a poem of five lines. We will alter slightly some of the requirements of a cinquain to accommodate a cinquinography. A cinquinography is a nquain about an actual person or a fictional character.

• Example

Abraham
American President
Rail-splitting, wrestling, reading,
Law-making, debating, presiding, emancipating
Lincoln

Your first name

Two words you can associate with yourself

Three ing words describing one aspect of your life

Four ing words describing a different aspect of your life

Your last name

Topic (noun)

Two words describing (adjectives)

Three action words (ing)

Two words to capture topic, two words to capture antonym.

Three action words (ing) for ending noun

Two describing words for ending noun

Ending noun - antonym:

Nobles

respected, chivalrous
crusading, landowning, maurading privileged, lofty, lowly, deprived.
enduring, hard working, starving
poor, hopeless

Peasants

[illegible]

Don't forget that standard rhyming poems of eight lines or more are also acceptable.